A veteran executive, Harrity has broad college athletics experience including the Big Ten, Big 12, ACC and Patriot League, as well two FBS Independent football programs in Notre Dame and Army West Point.

As Deputy AD/COO, Harrity oversees several of the day-to-day functions of the athletics department, including all External units: fundraising/development, Ticketing, Strategic Communication (athletic communications, marketing and fan engagement, digital and social strategies, creative video, and broadcasting) as Army West Point Athletics embarks on a major capital campaign to enhance Historic Michie Stadium.

He served as Athletics Chair on three of the four Advisory Council committees: Sports Science/Sports Performance, Leadership and Well-being, and Career Development. Also while at Notre Dame, Harrity led the areas that directly impact the student-athlete experience (the Rosenthal Leadership Academy, personal growth and career development, community service-learning, sports medicine, sports nutrition, strength and conditioning, sports science innovation). 3rd Year
Nebraska, 2001

Kristine Fowler was named a Senior Associate Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator at Army West Point in July of 2019.

"We are thrilled to welcome Kristine, Joseph, Kennedy and Jefferson Fowler to the West Point family," said Director of Athletics Mike Buddie. "Kristine's intellect, integrity and experiences at numerous Power Five schools makes her the perfect addition to our team. We look forward to her leadership of several key units at the Academy and can't wait to begin the new academic year."

Fowler will assume her new role at Army where she will be a member of the Executive Staff, oversee and manage the Human Resource Office, serve on several Patriot League Governance Committees and direct the Cadet-Athlete Welfare Program, while developing and executing the Leadership Development Programming for the department.

Fowler arrives on the banks of the Hudson after spending seven years at Indiana University. Most recently, she served as a Senior Associate Athletics Director for Sport Administration at Indiana for the past two years.

"I am elated to be joining the Army West Point Family," said Fowler. "I am thankful to Athletic Director Mike Buddie for the opportunity to work alongside him in leading this department and our 1100 cadet-athletes to unprecedented success."

At Indiana, her responsibilities included coordinating a team of eight sport administrators, department policy and procedures, IU's NCAA governance process, and representing IU on the Big Ten Sport Management Committee.

She also served as the sport administrator for men's golf, women's golf, rowing and wrestling. Fowler previously held sports supervisor responsibilities for men's tennis, women's tennis and field hockey.

Before assuming her Senior Associate Athletics Director role, Fowler was an Associate Athletic Director for Compliance beginning in September 2012 before being named Senior Associate Athletics Director for Compliance in February 2017.

Fowler arrived at Indiana after serving as the Assistant Athletic Director at the University of Kansas for six years, where she managed the day-to-day operations of the compliance office. Prior to Kansas, Fowler spent three years as an Assistant Director of Compliance at the University of Miami (Fla.).

Fowler holds a Business Management degree from the University of Nebraska and a master's of Sport Administration from Barry University. She is actively involved with both the National Association of Athletic Compliance (NAAC) and Women Leaders in College Sports (formerly known as NACWAA).

Fowler, a native of West Point, Neb., now resides in Fort Montgomery, N.Y., with her husband, Joseph, and children, Kennedy and Jefferson.

ARMY AND NAVY WILL BATTLE FOR THE 122ND TIME ON DECEMBER 11 AT METLIFE STADIUM

For the first time since World War II, the 122nd edition of the storied Army-Navy rivalry will findthe Black Knights and Midshipmen playing on Dec. 11, 2021 at MetLife Stadium in EastRutherford, N.J. Only 10 Division I-A rivalries have featured more games than the Army-Navy series.

This revered series began when Cadet Dennis Mahan Michie accepted a "challenge" from Naval Academy Midshipmen for a football game against the Cadets. That first contest was held on "The Plain" at West Point on Nov. 29, 1890. The more experienced Mids, who had been playing organized football since 1879, defeated the Cadets 24-0. With 90 of the 120 Army-Navy games played inside the Philadelphia city limits, 2021 marks the sixth time the historic matchup will be held in New Jersey.

MetLife Stadium will mark as the 16th different site since the birth of the series in 1890. The other sites include: West Point (4), Annapolis (3), Palmer Stadium (1), Franklin Field (18), Polo Grounds (9), Baltimore Stadium (2), Soldier Field (1), Yankee Stadium (2), Municipal/John F. Kennedy Stadium (41), Veterans Stadium (17), Rose Bowl (1), Giants Stadium (4), M&T Bank Stadium (2), Lincoln Financial Field (13) and FedEx Field (1).

The Army-Navy series has been tied on 13 occasions (five times since 1979). The latest tie came following Navy's victory in 2004. The Mids' win in 2005 gave Navy its first edge in the series since 1993. Until winning in 1980 to break a 37-37-6 stalemate, Navy had not led in the series standing since 1921, just after the 24th meeting between the academies.

Further evidence of the rivalry's competitive nature: only 390 points (3.25 ppg) separate the teams through the Classic's initial 120 pairings Navy has scored 1,905 points (15.9), while Army has recorded 1,515 points (12.6).

CBS Sports reaffirmed its committment to broadcasting the storied rivalry to a national audience with a new agreement until 2028. The Army-Navy Game presented by USAA will be the only college football game contested on the second Saturday in December a departure from its recent history of being played a week earlier opposite several conference championship contests.

The United States Military Academy and United States Naval Academy announced in July 2009 that financial services leader USAA signed a 10-year agreement to be the presenting sponsor of the annual Army-Navy football game. USAA is among the premier providers of banking products, insurance, investments, and financial planning to current and former members of the U.S. military and their families – including the Cadets and Midshipmen from the two academies.

Service academy supremacy is at stake on the gridiron each season when Army, Navy and Air Force batt le in a round-robin schedule for the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy.

This year, the Trophy enters its 51st season as the preeminent indicator of football bragging rights among the three major service academies.

Army's most recent Commander-in-Chief's Trophy was earned last season when the Black Knights assured that the Trophy would return to its original home by shu ng out arch-rival Navy 15-0 before trouncing Air Force 10-7 the following week. Both victories were earned at Michie Stadium, helping the team capture its third Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in four seasons.

To help commemorate the Trophy's 25th birthday, President Bill Clinton was on hand at "The Vet" to present the Black Knights with the glimmering silver Trophy following their come-from-behind victory.

It marked the fi rst ti me that a standing President att ended an Army-Navy clash since Gerald Ford looked on in 1974 to see Navy defeat Army 19-0.

Former President George W. Bush witnessed the Army-Navy game in person three ti mes during his two terms in office, attending the classic in 2001, 2004 and 2008. In 2018, President Donald J. Trump was on hand for the 119th installment of the Army-Navy game played at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.

Prior to 1996, Army had last acquired sole possession of the Trophy in 1988. In 1993, each team split its two academy games, marking only the fourth ti me that all three teams shared possession of the Trophy.

Army captured the inaugural Commander-in-Chief's Trophy by defeati ng Air Force, 17-14, and Navy, 23-15, in 1972.

The Trophy has resided at West Point in 1972, 1977, 1984, 1986, 1988, 1996, 2017, 2018, and 2020. Navy, which ruled the 1970s, has acquired sole ownership of the trophy nine ti mes since 1981. The Mids captured the hardware seven straight seasons from 2003-09 before Air Force claimed the trophy in 2010, 2011 and won it in 2014, aft er Navy won two straight.

The Trophy is named in honor of the President of the United States as Commander-in-Chief of the armed forces. The three-sided structure, which weighs 170 pounds and stands 2 1/2 feet tall, is engraved with the seal of each academy and displays a reproducti on of each school's mascot. The year in which the Trophy is won is engraved on the appropriate academy's side.

The idea for the establishment of an interservice football trophy originated with the late Gen. George B. Simler, commander of the Air Training Command and a former Air Force Academy athleti c director. The 1972 season was seen as an appropriate ti me to consider such an idea since it also marked the fi rst season of the round-robin competi ti on among the three teams. Simler proposed the idea to the USAFA Associati on of Graduates early in 1972. The Associati on, in turn, proposed the project to the alumni associati ons at West Point and Annapolis as suitable for joint sponsorship by the three insti tuti ons. Following formal adopti on of the project, designs for the Trophy were sought from manufacturers.

After Army's inaugural ti tle in 1972, Navy captured possession of the Trophy eight of the following nine years before Air Force fi rst staked claim to the honor in 1982. The Trophy remained in the Falcons' possession the following season when they swept the Black Knights and Midshipmen.

Army recaptured the Trophy in 1984, its fi rst outright title since 1977.

The Black Knights begin the quest for this year's CIC ti tle on Nov. 2 when they take on Air Force in Colorado. Army will then square off against Navy on Dec. 11 at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J.

COACHING STAFF

ARMY WEST POINT
FOOTBALL

JEFF MONKEN

Head Coach
8th Season
Millikin, 1989
@HEADCOACHJEFFMONKEN

Jeff Monken heads into his eighth season at the helm of Army West Point football in 2021 after being named the 37th individual head coach in program history on Dec. 24, 2013.

Monken shows a 85-55 career record as a head coach and a 49-39 mark at Army. The Black Knights have enjoyed success over the past five seasons with a .674 winning percentage, including four wins over Air Force, four wins over Navy (2016, 2017, 2018, 2020) and three bowl-game victories (2016, 2017, 2018).

Monken led the Cadets to yet another impressive season in 2020, posting a 9-3 record including rivalry wins over both Navy and Air Force. Army was led by the nation's top defensive unit, as the Black Knights ranked first in the FBS in Total Defense, allowing only 275.3 yards per game. The Blak Knights also ranked in the country's top 5 in scoring defense (2nd - 14.83 ppg), red-zone defense (2nd - .645 scoring pct.) and passing yards allowed (2nd - 160.8 ypg).

On the offensive side of the ball, Army displayed one of the most successful and diverse rushing attacks in the country thanks to Monken's triple-option scheme. The Cadets totaled over 250 rush yards in seven contests, including 441 vs Ablileine Christian (Oct.3) and 439 vs. Lousiana-Monroe (Sep. 12). Those marks were good for the 6th and 7th highest totals in a single game in the FBS during the 2020 season, respectively. Paced by a balanced rushing attack, the Cadets dominated time-of-possession over their opposition in 2020, holding the ball for an average of 34 minutes per game.

The 2020 season started strong, as the Black Knights defeated Middle Tennessee State, 42-0, in the season opener, the first Army shutout since blanking Air Force in Colorado Springs, Colo., 21-0, on Nov. 4, 2017. The 42-0 victory was Army's largest shutout victory over an FBS school since 1963, when it defeated Wake Forest, 47-0.

In the 2020 version of America's Game, Army's defensive unit held Navy's rushing attack to just 108 yards, the least amount of rushing yards by the Mids since 2001. The 15-0 shutout of Navy was the first time since Nov. 29, 1969, that Army shut out the Mids.

The 2020 Commander-in-Chief Trophy Champions also climbed into the national rankings throughout the season, twice finding themselves in the AP Top 25 (22nd- Weeks 3-4). The Black Knights' was just the fourth time since 1970 that Army won at least six games in its first seven tilts.

Monken coached a number of players to post-season honors in 2020 including USA Today Second-Team All-American Jon Rhattigan.

The 2019 season featured five wins for the Black Knights which was ranked amongst the best in the nation once again. Since the start of the 2016 season, Army is averaging a nation's best 327.8 yards per game on the ground. The Blacks Knights own the best third down conversion rate dating back to the 2010 season, converting 813-of-1,711 third downs (47.5 percent).

Army averaged 297.2 rushing yards per game (3rd nationally) in 2019 and had 3,863 net rushing yards total (3rd). The Black Knights' 45 rushing scores were tied for second in the nation, while their 5.2 yards per rush was 17th. The Cadets had three plays go for 80 or more yards (all touchdowns) in 2019, which finished tied for the nation's lead.

Army had 19 rushes of 30 or more yards this season, good for a tie for sixth in the nation. It finished tied for 12th in 40-plus rushes (9), 13th in 10-plus yard rushes (93), and tied for 17th in 20-plus (28). The Black Knights were fifth nationally in passing defense (178.9), tied for 27th in fumble recoveries (10), 27th in first downs allowed (234) and 30th in total defense (342.3).

West Point was eighth nationally in fewest penalty yards per game (38.2) and 12th in fewest penalties per game (4.6). Army is now 17-2 in its last 19 games played at Michie Stadium dating back to the 2016 season. This 2019 season marked Army's fourth consecutive winning season at home. The Cadets' 3,863 yards on the ground this season is good for sixth in program history. Since taking over as head coach in 2014, Monken and his teams own four of the top six single season rushing marks in program history.

In the VMI win, Army finished with 594 rushing yards, good for third most in program history and the most since Nov. 18, 1989 vs. Colgate.

Army's defense held UMass to 125 total yards, a program record for the fewest allowed to an FBS opponent. UMass was limited to just 19 yards in the second half. The Black Knights held the Minutemen to 26 rushing yards on 26 attempts, the fewest since allowing 10 to Lafayette on Oct. 15, 2016.

In 2018 Monken led the Cadets to a historic year as his squad became nationally ranked in early November for the first time in 22 years (1996). They remained in the Top-25 throughout the rest of the season and finished ranked No. 19 in the Associated Press Poll and No. 20 in the Amway Coaches Poll. The year was highlighted by a program-record 11 wins, marking the first time in Academy history the Black Knights registered 10-plus wins in back-to-back seasons. Army also won the Commander In Chief's trophy in consecutive seasons for the first time in program lore, while also garnering the Lambert Trophy for the first time in 60 years. The Black Knights became the first three-time winner of the Armed Forces Bowl as well that season after they routed Houston, 70-14, on Dec. 22. The 70 points put up by Army in that contest tied an FBS record for points scored in a bowl game.

To cap the 2018 season, the Cadets won 13 games in a row at home and finished their second-straight season going unbeaten at Michie Stadium. They held five consecutive opponents to 14 or less points to end the year as well and finished 11-0 when leading at the half. Army closed the year ranked first nationally in third down conversion percentage (.571), fourth down conversion percentage (.861), and time of possession (38:33), while also sitting second in rushing offense with 312.5 yards per game.

Twelve cadet-athletes were named to the Phil Steele's All-Independent Team, and Monken received national praise after winning the George Munger Collegiate Coach of the Year Award and the Vince Lombardi Award for National College Coach of the Year. He was also named a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant and Eddie Robinson Awards for Coach of the Year.

In 2017 Monken led Army to its most successful season in over two decades, earning 10 victories, the Commander in Chief's Trophy and a victory in the Armed Forces Bowl. The Black Knights won the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision rushing title by averaging 362.3 rushing yards per game and finished with 50 rushing touchdowns, which broke the program record for a single season set a year prior. On the other side of the ball, Army was third in the nation in red zone defense and 14th against the pass. The Black Knights held opponents to 22 points per game and ended Air Force's 306-game scoring streak with a 21-0 victory at Falcon Stadium. It was the first shutout against a service academy since 1969. The Black Knights were also rewarded for their success as the ECAC Division I FBS Team of the Year.

The 2016 season was a memorable one for the Black Knights under Monken. He led them to their first win over Navy since 2001 and a victory in a bowl game. The last time the Black Knights accomplished both feats in the same season was in 1984. Army was second in the nation in rushing offense and ran for a then Academy single-season 46 touchdowns, which eclipsed the 1945 national championship team. Defensively, Army was consistently in the Top-10 in total defense and closed out the year fourth in the nation.

In 2015, Monken coached Army to a pair of wins over Bucknell and Eastern Michigan. The Black

COACH MONKEN PUMPS UP THE CROWD ON THE SET OF ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY PRIOR TO THE START OF THE ARMY-NAVY GAME ON DEC. 14, 2019

Knights had five players reach 100 yards rushing in a game that year and had three different quarterbacks throw for 100 yards. Signal callers Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter ran and threw for 100 yards in their career debuts. Army won on the road for the first time since 2010 with a 58-36 win over Eastern Michigan as well. The Black Knights closed the season ranked 12th in the country in rushing offense at 244.3 yards per game. Linebacker Andrew King finished 21st in the nation in tackles for loss with an average of 2.1 per game and 26th in fumbles recovered with two.

In his first season at Army, Monken guided the Cadets to home victories over Buffalo, Ball State and Fordham, in addition to a dramatic win against Connecticut at Yankee Stadium. Under his guidance, running back Larry Dixon, linebacker Jeremy Timpf, defensive back Josh Jenkins and offensive lineman Matt Hugenberg earned 11 citations on postseason all-star teams. Two players, Joe Drummond and Dixon, competed in The Medal of Honor Bowl Game and East-West Shrine Game, respectively, as well.

Army was fifth in the country in rushing offense at 296.5 yards per game in Monken's inaugural season and sixth in fewest penalties per game with just 4.08 infractions per contest. He tutored a host of players who were listed in the national rankings as well. Timpf was seventh in the nation in solo tackles per game and 23rd in tackles per game. Jenkins was eighth in the country in blocked kicks and 33rd in interceptions per game, and both Lamar Johnson-Harris and Xavier Moss ranked 11th in punt return touchdowns. Dixon was nationally ranked in rushing yards per carry (30th), rushing yards (39th) and rushing yards per game (41st).

With the Black Knights' 47-39 win against Buffalo, Monken became the first head coach to win his first game since Bob Sutton did so in 1991 with a victory over Colgate. Prior to that, the last Army coach to win his first game against a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent was Ed Cavanaugh in 1980.

Monken came to the banks of the Hudson River following a successful stint as head coach at Georgia Southern. He spent four seasons as head coach of the Eagles after learning the triple-option offense under one of the nation's premier option proponents, Paul Johnson, during assistant coaching stints at Navy and Georgia Tech.

In his four seasons at Georgia Southern, Monken authored a 38-16 mark and spearheaded the programs transition to the elite Football Bowl Subdivision level from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) ranks.

Georgia Southern, which joined the Sun Belt Conference following Monken's tenure, was a member of the FCS and qualified for the NCAA playoffs in all three eligible seasons under him. The Eagles advanced to the national semifinals each year, while also posting double-digit victory totals.

Monken guided tradition-rich Georgia Southern to some of the biggest wins in school history, with the most memorable arguably being a 26-20 victory at Florida at the vaunted "Swamp." Despite that headline-grabbing victory, the Eagles were not eligible for the FCS playoffs that season due to their transitional status.

Monken and Johnson are the only coaches in Georgia Southern school history to win at least 10 games in each of their first three seasons. A finalist for the 2012 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Monken guided the Eagles to 10 wins his first season, 11 his second and 10 in his third. His 2013 squad posted a 7-4 mark, including the stunning, season-ending upset of Florida in Gainesville.

Under Monken's guidance, Georgia Southern was one of the top rushing teams at the FCS level, claiming the NCAA rushing title in 2012 at 399.36 yards per contest. Walter Payton Award candidate Jerick McKinnon and running back Dominique Swope established the NCAA record for rushing yards by teammates with 3,063. Monken coached a lengthy list of all-stars, including the school's highest-ever National Football League draft choice, safety J.J. Wilcox, a third-round selection by the Dallas Cowboys in 2013.

Georgia Southern was ranked No. 1 in both FCS polls for seven weeks in 2011 and stopped Wofford, 31-10, to win its ninth Southern Conference championship. Five players were named All-America, Brent Russell was selected Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Monken earned conference Coach of the Year plaudits and Swope was named Southern Conference Freshman of the Year. Home playoff wins against Old Dominion and Maine were part of the Eagles' memorable 11-3 campaign.

Monken got off to a great start in his first year a Georgia Southern, knocking off top-ranked and previously unbeaten Appalachian State en route to its a 10-5 season. The Eagles ended the year with three straight wins to qualify for the postseason and registered three playoff victories to advance to the national semifinals.

In addition to the success on the field, Monken helped Georgia Southern re-emerge academically with the team's cumulative grade point average ranking as the highest in school history in each of his first two seasons. Not only were the Eagles successful in the classroom and on the football field under Monken, but the players and staffs were part of several community service programs and local events.

Monken was named Georgia Southern's head coach in November of 2009, continuing a family history of football coaches. Jeff's father, Mike, and a dozen family members have coached at the high school, collegiate or professional ranks.

Monken's first head coaching job came after accumulating 20 years of experience as an assistant, 13 of them with his mentor Johnson. Monken coached slotbacks at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001 before joining Johnson first at Navy and then Georgia Tech.

As an assistant coach at Georgia Southern, Monken was part of two NCAA FCS National Championship squads (1999 and 2000) and five-straight playoff teams. Georgia Southern was among the top-five rushing teams in all five seasons and twice led the nation in rushing. The Eagles ranked in the top-15 in scoring four out of five seasons as well.

After serving as an assistant at Georgia Southern, Monken accepted a position on Johnson's coaching staff at Navy. Monken not only mentored slotbacks, he later added special teams coordinator duties.

In Annapolis, Monken helped the Midshipmen to five-straight Commander in Chief trophies and five consecutive bowl game appearances, including a 10-win season in 2004. Following his time at Navy, Monken moved to Georgia Tech where for two seasons he served as the slotbacks coach and special teams coordinator. The Yellow Jackets posted double-digit wins in 2009 and captured the Atlantic Coast Conference championship, although that title was later vacated.

Monken began his coaching career in 1989 as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i and later spent one season at Arizona State. Monken moved to Buffalo as the wide receivers and tight ends coach who also handled recruiting. He served on the staffs at Morton (Ill.) High School as the head coach and at Concordia University in Illinois as the offensive line coach.

A native of Joliet, Ill., Monken played wide receiver for four years and earned two varsity letters in track and field, while earning his bachelor's degree from Millikin University in 1989. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in October 2013 and collected his master's degree from Hawai'i in 1991.

Monken and his wife Beth reside at West Point with their three daughters, Isabelle, Amelia and Evangeline.

BRENT DAVIS

Offensive Coordinator
8th Season
Georgia, 1997

Brent Davis is in his eighth season with the Army West Point football team serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

Davis' offense propelled the Black Knights to a 9-3 record in 2020 behind the nation's fourth-ranked rushing offense. Army averaged 273 rushing yards per game a season ago with four Cadets averaging over 40 yards per game on the ground. Four Cadets started under center a year ago, with six Black Knights taking a snap throughout the season for the first time since the 1940's. Quarterbacks Thyier Tyler and Christian Anderson paced the Army offense with 83 and 60 rush yards per game, respectively.

Tyler, Tyrell Robinson and Jakobi Buchannan all found their way onto the Phil Steele All-Independent teams in 2020 after outstanding performances. Running back Shandon McCoy's 10 rushing touchdowns were also good for 22nd in the country. Davis also oversaw the development of an offensive line that only allowed seven sacks a year ago, which was good for seventh-fewest in the FBS.

In 2019, the Black Knights averaged 297.2 yards per game and rushed for a total of 3863 yards, both of which ranked third nationally.

In 2018, the Cadets finished second with 312.5 rushing yards per game. They also ranked first in three different categories to close out the year: third down conversion percentage (.571), fourth down conversion percentage (.861), and time of possession (38:33).

Davis coached six players to Phil Steele All-Independent Team honors in 2018, including two linemen in Bryce Holland and Jaxson Deaton.

Holland, a team captain, was named to the USA Today All-Bowl Team and an All-ECAC First Team recipient as well. Also garnering recognition in 2018 was the offensive line, that was selected to the Sports Illustrated All-Bowl Team. The o-line blocked for an impressive Army running game that compiled an FBS bowl game record tying 70 points in its victory over Houston on Dec. 22. That same line helped the Army offense rush for over 4,000 yards on the year, which ranked second in the country.

Davis also had a hand in the success of Kelvin Hopkins Jr. and Darnell Woolfolk. In 2018, Hopkins Jr. became the first player in Academy history to throw and rush for 1,000 yards in the same season. His five rushing touchdowns in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl tied the Black Knights' single-game record and his 77-yard TD scamper during that contest was the longest run in Army's bowl history. Hopkins Jr. closed out his first year as the primary play caller with 17 rushing touchdowns, which tied Carlton Jones and Trent Steelman for a single-season program record.

Woolfolk finished his career tied for third in program history with 37 touchdowns after compiling 14 during his final campaign. He rushed for a career-best 956 yards in 2018 and ended his tenure ninth all-time in Academy lore with 2,368 yards. Woolfolk was also selected to play in the 2018 East-West Shrine Game following his impressive senior season.

In 2017, Davis was honored as a nominee for the Broyles Award, which is given to the top assistant coach in the country, after leading the Black Knights to an NCAA rushing title with 362.3 yards per game. Army also set a new Academy record scoring 50 rushing touchdowns to finish second in the nation in that category. The Cadets led the country in total rushing yards with 4,710 on the year as well.

That year quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw broke the single-season service-academy rushing record with 1,746 yards, which was high enough for fifth in the country at the end of the year. Bradshaw finished sixth in the nation with 134.3 rushing yards per contest. He averaged an impressive 7.21 yards per carry, which was also in the top 10 nationally.

Offensive lineman Brett Toth was a participant in the 2017 Reese's Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game. Toth was also a member of the Associated Press All-Bowl Team, while linemate Holland was awarded with a spot on the ESPN All-Bowl Team.

In 2016 the offensive unit ranked second in the nation in rushing offense with 339 rushing yards per game and 5.6 yards per rush. Army ran for over 500 yards twice that season and racked up 4,412 total rushing yards, which was the third most in Academy history for a single season. Under Davis, the Black Knights ran for a then Academy record 46 touchdowns, which eclipsed the 1945 national championship team that had 45 that season. Army was aided that year by fullback Andy Davidson and Bradshaw, who both ran for over 900 yards. Davidson rushed for 12 touchdowns for eighth all-time in a single season and the most since Trent Steelman achieved 12 in 2011.

Davis led a Black Knights offense in 2015 that was 12th in the nation with 244.3 rushing yards per game. He guided six players to 100-yard rushing games during the season, including two from Bradshaw and Aaron Kemper. Bradshaw and Chris Carter made their career debuts under Davis and ran and threw for 100 yards in their first game in an Army uniform.

The Cadets' passing attack under Davis saw Edgar Poe record two 100-yard receiving games, including 121 yards on five catches against Navy. Poe had six touchdowns, which was the most by an Army receiver since 2007. Davis also coached Army to 34 total touchdowns in 2015 with 24 coming by way of the ground game.

In his first season at Army, Davis guided an offense that was fifth in the country in rushing yards per contest at 296.5. He tutored running back Larry Dixon, who rushed for 1,102 yards as a senior and for more than 3,000 yards throughout his career. Dixon was 39th in the nation in rushing yards during his final campaign and 40th in rushing yards per contest at 91.8. With guidance from Davis, quarterback Angel Santiago ranked 60th in the country with 10 rushing touchdowns as well.

As the primary play-caller, Davis led Army to 33 rushing touchdowns and 358.8 yards of total offense per contest that season. Davis also worked with the offensive line, a unit that featured a different starting five on 10 occasions and still had Army among the nation's rushing leaders. Center Matt Hugenberg was named to two different postseason all-star teams, and Dixon collected honors for three different squads.

Georgia Southern boasted the top rushing offense in two consecutive seasons in 2011 and 2012.

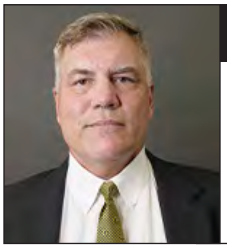

Davis also coached at Georgia Southern from 1997-05 when he guided the offensive line and running backs as the Eagles won seven conference championships and made eight playoff appearances during that time. With Davis' charges blocking up front, Georgia Southern captured four consecutive FCS rushing titles as well as the 2004 scoring title with 47.0 points per contest.

Davis later moved to coaching the offensive line before departing for Virginia Military Institute as its offensive coordinator. Davis spent four seasons at VMI, his final season as interim head coach, before returning to Georgia Southern.

The Keydets, running the triple option, led the Big South in rushing in all four of Davis' seasons. VMI established a conference-record 357.5 yards per game average in 2008, while the 2009 squad racked up 276.6 rushing yards per game. Both the 2008 and 2009 teams led the nation in rushing. In 2007, VMI produced four 500-plus yard games and ranked fourth in the country in rushing and 34th in total offense.

Davis earned a pair of varsity letters at The Citadel as a tight end before transferring to the University of Georgia. He lettered and earned a spot on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll before graduating from Georgia in 1997 with a degree in business management.

Davis and his wife Jen, a Georgia Southern graduate, reside at West Point.

NATE WOODY

Defensive Coordinator
2nd Season
Wofford, 1984

Army football head coach Jeff Monken announced the hiring of Nate Woody as defensive coordinator on Jan. 2, 2020. A 29-year coaching veteran and a coordinator for 19 years, Woody finished his first season at West Point in 2020 after stints as a defensive analyst at Michigan (2019), defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Georgia Tech (2018), defensive coordinator at Appalachian State (2013-17) and defensive coordinator at Wofford (2000-12).

In just one season as the defensive coordinator, Woody helped Army finish as the nation's top defense, allowing just 275.3 yards per game in 2020. The Cadet's 9-3 record was powered by Woody's defensive 3-4 scheme that helped the Black Knights dominate in both the passing and ground game. Army allowed the second-fewest passing yards in the nation, giving up only 160.8 yards per game. Additionally, Woody's run-stopping unit finished 18th in the country allowing only 114.6 yards per game on the ground against a schedule full of run-heavy offenses.

The Black Knights also ranked in the country's top 5 in scoring defense (2nd - 14.83 ppg), red-zone defense (2nd - .645 scoring pct.) and passing yards allowed (2nd - 160.8 ypg).

Woody helped Army bring the Commander-In-Chief Trophy back to West Point in his first season as the DC, after his defense held Navy (W, 15-0) and Air Force (W, 10-7) to a combined seven points. The 15-0 shutout of Navy was the first time since Nov. 29, 1969, that Army shutout the Mids in America's Game. Led by Woody and a veteran defensive unit, the Black Knights defense held their opponents to fewer than 10 points six times this season, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1966.

Under Woody's guidance, six Cadets earned spots on the Phil Steele 2020 All-Independent Team, including Second-Team All-American John Rhattigan.

Woody, who brought his attacking 3-4 scheme to Army which he used to run Georgia Tech's defense in 2018. He worked under then Georgia Tech head coach Paul Johnson, who Monken was an assistant coach for with the Yellowjackets (2008-09), at Navy (2002-07) and at Georgia Southern (1997-01). In 2018, the Yellowjackets' defense had a nose for the football, as they were tied for fifth nationally in fumble recoveries (13), tied for 16thin total takeaways (25) and tied for 17thin defensive touchdowns (3).

Woody directed Appalachian State's defense for five seasons. He took over a defense in 2013 that ranked eighth in the nine-team FCS Southern Conference in total defense the season prior to his arrival. Under Woody's leadership, his unit led the Sun Belt Conference in total defense three times and ranked among the top 30 in NCAA Division I FBS each of his last four campaigns at Appalachian State (2014-17).

Over his final three seasons at Appalachian State, the Mountaineers had average FBS national rankings of 15th in scoring defense, 19th in total defense, 28th in rushing defense and 28th in passing defense. Appalachian also averaged 24 takeaways, 19 interceptions and 35 sacks per season over the last three campaigns. During that three-year span, the Mountaineers won 30 games, two Sun Belt championships and became the first program to ever win bowl games in each of its first three seasons at the FBS level.

Appalachian State blanked Mid-American Conference champion Toledo, 34-0, at the 2017 Dollar General Bowl. The Mountaineers limited the nation's eighth-ranked offense to just 146 total yards (364 yards below the Rockets' season average) and had four takeaways.
Prior to Appalachian State, Woody spent the first 22 years of his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Wofford (1988-93, 1997-2012), including 13 successful seasons as defensive coordinator (2000-12).

In his 13 seasons leading the Wofford defense, Woody built one of the Southern Conference's most successful units. Wofford led the SoCon in total defense three times under Woody's direction, including twice in his last three campaigns with the Terriers (2010 and 2012), and produced nine all-Americans and three SoCon Defensive Players of the Year.

In his final season at Wofford, the defense allowed just 16.6 points, 125 rushing yards and 305.9 total yards per game, good for tops in the SoCon in all three categories. The Terriers ranked among the top 10 in the FCS in total defense twice in his last three seasons — seventh in 2010 and ninth in 2012 — and also led FCS (then known as Division I-AA) in takeaways with 41 in 2003.

Woody was a four-year starter at Wofford from 1980-83, playing two years at defensive back and two at outside linebacker. He was an honorable-mention all-American, a two-time all-district honoree and served as the Terriers' team captain in 1983. He graduated from Wofford with a B.A. in business economics in 1984.

Born in Burlington, N.C., Woody spent part of his childhood in nearby Morganton, N.C. before attending high school at T.L. Hanna H.S. in Anderson, S.C. At Hanna, he was a four-sport standout (football, basketball, baseball and soccer) and played in the 1979 Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas. He and his wife, Rebecca, have two sons, Nicolas and Jacob.

JOHN LOOSE

Assistant Head Coach/Outside Linebackers
16th Season
Ithaca, 1987

John Loose is in his second stint with the Army West Point football program and 16th season overall on the Banks of the Hudson.

He was elevated to assistant head coach/linebackers coach after spending the 2019 season as the team's defensive coordinator.

Loose helped coach up a defensive unit that finished first overall in total defense in 2020, allowing only 275.3 yards per game. The Black Knights also ranked in the country's top 5 in scoring defense (2nd - 14.83 ppg), red-zone defense (2nd - .645 scoring pct.) and passing yards allowed (2nd - 160.8 ypg).

With his help, Army secured the Commander-in-Chief Trophy in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2012-13. Army's defense was dominant in the rivalry games against Navy and Air Force, holding the Falcons to only seven points and shutting out the mids for the first time since 1969.

He served as the interim DC during Army's 2018 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl victory over Houston, in which the Black Knights held the Cougars to just 14 points while registering a program record 10 sacks.

Loose is no stranger to the defensive coordinator position having been in that role at Lafayette College for 14 seasons, from 2000-13, and at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy for three years from 1989-91.

Since making his second stop at the Banks of the Hudson in 2014, Loose has been at the forefront of the Black Knights' safeties. The last two seasons he helped guide a secondary that ranked 21st and 14th in the nation against the pass.

In 2018, Loose mentored junior Jaylon McClinton and senior James Gibson to the fourth and fifth most tackles on the team, respectively. McClinton accumulated 54 tackles, including 37 solo shots. The Charlotte, N.C., native added four tackles for a loss of 17 yards, one sack for a loss of nine yards, and two interceptions for 11 yards. He also registered six pass breakups and two forced fumbles.

Gibson did much of the same this past season, earning 41 total tackles with 25 of those being unassisted. The Centreville, Va., native tallied four tackles for a loss of 21 yards and two sacks for a loss of 11 yards. Gibson posted two pass breakups and one forced fumble as well.

The Black Knights were also eighth nationally in total defense allowing just 295.5 yards per game, while their third down conversion percentage defense was fourth in the country at 26 percent.

In 2017, Gibson was teamed up with then senior Rhyan England in the backfield. Gibson was instrumental in Army's success with 45 total stops, including a game-saving one against Eastern Michigan on a two-point conversion that sealed the Black Knights' victory over the Eagles. England missed a few games due to injury that year but had 33 tackles and one fumble recovery. Max Regan, who saw significant time with England injured, made 33 stops along with a team-leading two interceptions and a fumble recovery. He returned one of the interceptions for a touchdown in the 49-12 victory over Rice.

During the 2016 season, Loose tutored senior Xavier Moss and England to 57 and 53 tackles, respectively. The pair also had two interceptions on the year. Moss led the team with five pass breakups and had an interception and a forced fumble in the win over Navy.

Loose was a key leader on the defensive staff that year as he helped guide Army to fourth in the nation in total defense and sixth against the pass. Army improved from six interceptions in 2015 to 17 in 2016.

In 2015, Loose mentored Moss in his transition to the secondary after spending two seasons on the offensive side of the ball. Moss was third on the team with 67 tackles along with one interception and five pass breakups. England had 64 tackles in 2015 under Loose with three tackles for loss, four pass breakups and a fumble recovery.

During the 2014 season, Loose coaches a young safeties group. Hayden Pierce, the lone senior starter, registered 45 tackles, despite missing a game. Pierce broke up three passes. Junior Luke Proulx made 28 tackles in eight games and classmate Michael McFadden competed in nine contests.

Under Loose's guidance, Lafayette consistently was among the top-25 defenses in the Football Championship Subdivision. In the 2013 season, Lafayette topped rival and 15th ranked Lehigh 50-28 and advanced to the national playoffs. During that season he also led his Lafayette defense to an upset of then unbeaten and No. 5-ranked Fordham, 27-14. In 2012, Lafayette featured four All-Patriot League selections, while the 2010 squad boasted three all-league choices.

The American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 2008, Loose and his wife, Marianne, started Lauren's First and Goal Foundation. The organization was founded in 2004 and raises money for pediatric brain tumor research. The Foundation has generated more than $2 million and blossomed into the largest one-day football clinic in the country.

Among the many all-stars Loose has coached is Andy Romans, a two-time Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year who helped the Leopards finish the 2008 season eighth in the nation in scoring defense (17.6 points per game), 10th in rushing defense (just 92.2 yards per game) and 20th in total defense at 303.2 yards per contest.

Lafayette boasted the top defense in the nation in 2007. Under Loose's leadership, Lafayette allowed an NCAA-best 260.9 yards per game and ranked fourth in rushing defense at 85.7 yards per game.

The Leopards led the Patriot League in rushing defense in 2006 at 139 yards per contest, while the 2005 team ranked in the top 20 in five categories.

Linebacker Maurice Bennett helped pace the defense prior to his graduation in 2006, was a finalist for the Buchanan Award and was chosen as an All-American by five organizations. Blake Costanzo played linebacker the same season and completed eight years in the NFL.

Before Lafayette, Loose coached at Army for eight seasons under Bob Sutton. In 1996, Army ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense during a 10-2 campaign that included an appearance in the Independence Bowl.

Prior to his time at Army, Loose worked as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy.

Loose started his coaching career at the University of Albany in 1987 where he coached the secondary and earned his Masters in Program Development and Evaluation.

Loose was a track and field star at Ithaca College where he was an All-American in 1986 and a five-time NCAA qualifier in the high jump. At one time he held the school record at 6-feet, 10¼ inches for outdoors and 6-feet, 10 inches for indoors, both of which were marks that stood for more than 30 years. He earned four letters in indoor and outdoor track and field prior to his graduation in 1987. He earned a degree in physical education with a minor in Psychology.

Loose and his wife, Marianne, have two daughters, Lauren and Grace, and reside at West Point.

SEAN SATURNIO

Special Teams Coordinator
8th Season
Hawai'i, 1992

Sean Saturnio enters his eighth season in 2020 as a member of the Army West Point football coaching staff and returns for his fourth season as the special teams coordinator. He heads back as the leader of the special teams unit after two seasons (2018-19) as Army's tight ends coach.

In his first season back with the special teams, Saturnio mentored one of the best units in the nation. Under Saturnio's guidance, Army led the nation in both blocked kicks and blocked punts with seven and three, respectively.

Saturnio's special teams unit was a key piece of the Army defensive effort, as opponents were continually pinned deep in their own territory by Second-Team All-Independent Punter Zach Harding and the exceptional Army punt coverage team. Long snapper Kyle O'Connor also earned a spot on an All-Independent team, landing on the first team for his efforts in the 2020 campaign.

Army's special teamers also played a crucial role in helping Army capture the 2020 Commander-In-Chief Trophy with near perfect performances against both Navy and Air Force.

Saturnio played an integral role in his two years coaching the tight ends, as the unit assisted the offensive line in having one of the best rushing attacks in the country each year. Since the start of the 2016 season, Army is averaging a nation's best 327.8 yards per game on the ground. During the 2019 season, Army averaged 297.2 rushing yards per game (3rd nationally), while its 45 rushing scores were tied for second in the nation.

In 2018, Saturnio helped Army capture Commander in Chief's Trophy titles for the second-straight year and earn a bowl victory for the third year in a row following a 70-14 win over Houston. The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and finished the year ranked 19th in the nation.

Saturnio tutored tight ends Quinten Parker and Zach Saum to become an integral part of the offensive line that helped Army rank second in the nation in rushing yards per game at 312.5 during the 2018 campaign. The group was instrumental in leading Army to the best third and fourth down conversion rate in college football. The Black Knights were also third in the nation with 47 rushing touchdowns.

In 2017, with help from Saturnio, the Black Knights brought home the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history.

As special teams coordinator, he mentored punter Nick Schrage into a weapon for field position in 2017 as he was named a nominee for the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter. Schrage improved his average by over seven yards per kick and had six boots over 50 yards after just one in 2016.

That year the Black Knights' Special Teams unit finished with their highest STE (Special Teams Efficiency) rating since 2010 according to the college and pro statistical analysis site Football Outsiders. The unit was tied for eighth nationally in block punts in 2016 and tied for ninth in 2017.

Football Outsiders also ranked the jump from the 2016 to the 2017 season as the greatest one season improvement in the last decade of Army football.

In 2016, Saturnio took over the special teams for the first time at West Point. He mentored Blake Wilson, Schrage and J.D. Mote in the kicking game in their first full season. Rookie Malik McGue averaged eight yards per punt return and had a season-long 58-yard return at Wake Forest.

Saturnio spent his first two seasons coaching the fullbacks. In 2015, he mentored Aaron Kemper into Army's top rusher with 544 yards on the ground and three touchdowns. Kemper had a pair of 100-yard rushing games, including 140 yards against Eastern Michigan.

Under Saturnio, Matt Giachinta gained 286 yards and scored a touchdown as a senior. He was named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Society and was a finalist for the Pop Warner Award.

In his first season at Army, Saturnio helped mentor 1,000-yard rusher Larry Dixon who topped the 3,000-yard mark for his career. Dixon was named to three postseason all-star teams and competed in the East-West Shrine Game. Saturnio also coached Giachinta, Kemper and Richie Smith, all key parts of a rushing attack that was third in the country at 296.5 yards per game.

He also oversaw the punters and helped Alex Tardieu average 39.3 yards on 44 punts. Tardieu pinned the opponent inside the 20-yard line on 18 occasions and totaled six kicks of 50 yards or more.

Saturnio came to West Point following two seasons at Georgia Southern, where he coached the tight ends and assisted Brent Davis with the offensive line. In addition, he coached the punters and coordinated the punt return team.

Saturnio also had responsibility as the Director of Player Development in 2011 before assuming coaching responsibilities.

In 2012, Saturnio helped wide receiver/tight end Tyler Sumner collect honors on Phil Steels's 2012 All-Southern Conference squad.

A native of Hilo, Hawai'i, Saturnio spent 12 seasons as the head coach at Waipahu High School, culminating with a semifinal appearance in the Oahu Interscholastic Association (OIA) White Conference playoffs in 2011.

Saturnio was an assistant for two seasons before taking over as head coach at Waipahu where his team qualified for the playoffs in six of 10 seasons at the helm. He was named the OIA Division I Coach of the Year for the Western Division in 2008 and OIA Division II Coach of the Year in 2004.

Saturnio began his collegiate playing career at Division III Beloit College in Wisconsin before transferring to the University of Hawai'i. He was a walk-on for the Warriors and earned a spot on the team as a wide receiver. He earned his degree in elementary education in 1992.

Saturnio and his wife, Sharon, were married in 2014. They have four children, Caitlin, Christina, Zachary, and Isaiah, and two grandchildren, Maya and Ezekiel.

CORTNEY BRASWELL

Inside Linebackers
1st Season
Florida, 2003

Braswell was hired to Jeff Monken's staff in February of 2021 to work with the inside linebackers.

Braswell, a former high school head coach in Georgia and Tennessee, came to West Point after spending the 2020 season at Appalachian State as an assistant coach and the 2019 season as a quality control coach at Louisville.

As the outside linebackers assistant coach at Appalachian State in 2020, Braswell helped lead a defensive unit that ranked 18th nationally in total defense as the Mountaineers went 9-3 and won the Myrtle Beach Bowl with a 56-28 victory over North Texas. The App State defense ranked in the top three in multiple Sun Belt defensive categories, including second in pass defense and second in total defense. Braswell was also a key national recruiter for the Mountaineers.

During his one season at Louisville in 2019, Braswell was a defensive quality control coach, working with the inside linebackers position group. Braswell helped the Cardinals to one of the biggest turnarounds in college football that season as they went from 2-10 in 2018 to 8-5 in 2019 with a win over Mississippi State in the Music City Bowl.

As the head coach at Ridgeland High School in his hometown of Rossville, Ga., in 2018, Braswell led the Panthers to an 8-4 overall record, a Region 6-AAAA runner-up finish and a 34-14 state playoff victory over Flowery Branch before a second-round loss at Cartersville, the eventual state runner-up. Ridgeland also scored a big regular season road win at Sandy Creek.

Braswell was the head coach at Chattanooga Central High School in 2016 and 2017 and led the Purple Pounders to the TSSAA state playoffs twice. He also served on the Tennessee Football Coaches Association Board of Directors, representing the interests of football coaches statewide and serving as a contributing voice with the TSSAA legislation.

He began his coaching career in 2009 as he coached defensive backs at Ringgold. He went on to be defensive coordinator at Soddy-Daisy, East Ridge, North Murray, Chattanooga Central and Bradley Central and was the 2014 District Assistant Coach of the Year during his first stint with the Purple Pounders.

As the offensive coordinator at Chattanooga Notre Dame in 2012, Braswell's offense was one of the best in the state, where the Irish averaged more than 34 points a game.

A two-time all-state running back at Baylor School in Chattanooga and a Mr. Football finalist for the Red Raiders as a senior in 2004, Braswell graduated from his high school as its single-game and career rushing and scoring leader and later played college football at Liberty University.

Braswell holds a bachelor's degree in history from Dalton State College in Dalton, Ga., and a master's degree in teaching from Lee University in Cleveland, Tenn.

DARYL DIXON

Cornerbacks
6th Season
Florida, 2003

Daryl Dixon returns to the Army West Point football staff for his fifth season on the sidelines and coaches the cornerbacks.

In the 2020 season, Dixon helped build the nation's top defensive unit. Under his guidance, the Black Knights secondary allowed the second-fewest passing yards in the nation, giving up only 160.8 ypg.

Dixon's defensive backfield was a force to be reckoned with throughout the season, especially in the team's rivalry matchups with Air Force and Navy. In those two contests, the Black Knights held the offenses to a combined 118 passing yards while allowing just seven total points. The defensive effort powered Army to its third Commander in Chief Trophy in the past four seasons.

Defensive backs Cedrick Cunningham and Julian McDuffie both earned spots on the Phil Steele All-Independent First-team in 2020 while being mentored by Dixon.

In 2018, with help from Dixon, Army captured back-to-back Commander in Chief's Trophy titles for the first time in school history and earned three-straight bowl victories, which is a program record. The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and finished the year ranked 19th in the nation.

Dixon tutored Campbell Trophy Finalist Kenneth Brinson and Chandler Ramirez in 2018. Ramirez was a newcomer to a starting role and made 31 tackles and had two fumble recoveries. Brinson was the steady force once again with 29 tackles, 6.5 for a loss and had 5.5 sacks, which was second on the team. He also added two forced fumbles and a recovery. He sealed the win against Navy with a strip sack and recover in the fourth quarter.

He helped guide the 2017 Black Knights to their first 10-win season since 1996 and they won 10 games for only the second time in academy history. They captured the CIC Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won the Armed Forces Bowl with a victory over San Diego State.

In 2017, Aukerman finished with 70 tackles for third on the team and had the most tackles for loss and sacks on the team with 15.5 and 7.5, respectively. He combined with Brinson to recovery three fumbles and record two forced fumbles. Aukerman also had a key interception in the Armed Forces Bowl, which allowed Army to complete its comeback over San Diego State.

Dixon tutored outside linebackers Alex Aukerman and Kenneth Brinson in 2016 to 59 and 45 tackles, respectively. Aukerman led the team in sacks with 7.5 and tackles for loss with 15, while Brinson was vital in passing situations with two interceptions.

Dixon was part of a defensive staff that guided Army to fourth in the nation in total defense, sixth against the pass and 16th versus the run.

Dixon came to West Point after seven seasons at Ball State as an assistant coach, where he tutored outside linebackers, cornerbacks and safeties throughout his stint with the Cardinals. He was on the Ball State staff for a pair of bowl games, including the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg after the 2012 season and the GoDaddy Bowl after the 2013 campaign.

During his time at Ball State, Dixon tutored Eric Patterson to All-Mid-American Conference Third Team honors in 2012 and Jamill Smith to third team honors as a punt return specialist in 2012 as well. In addition, Dixon coached Sean Baker, who finished his career at Ball State as the program's leader in interceptions with 18. He also tutored 2010 second team All-MAC defensive back Jason Pinkston.

He was named ESPN MAC Recruiter of the Year in 2012 and ranked as the No. 2 MAC recruiter by 24/7 Sports in 2012.

Prior to the Cardinals, Dixon spent the 2008 season as a graduate assistant with the defensive line at Illinois. He started his coaching career as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Illinois from Feb. 2006 through Jan. 2008.

Dixon is a 2003 graduate of the University of Florida, where he starred as a defensive back. He played 49 games with 25 starts for the Gators and was a team captain as a senior. He was named to the 2003 All-Southeastern Conference Second Team and reached four bowl games with Florida. Off the field, he was a two-time Academic All-SEC selection and was voted Florida's Male Outstanding Senior Leader among the entire student body for the fall of 2003 graduating class.

Following graduation, Dixon spent two seasons (2004 and 2005) as a member of the Indianapolis Colts.

MATT DRINKALL

Tight Ends
3rd Season
Western Illinois, 2005

Matt Drinkall was added to the Army West Point football staff in February 2019. He currently serves as the tight ends coach after a year stint as the offensive quality control coach.

In 2020, Drinkall coached a group that aided ah offensive effort that helped Army finish with a 9-3 record and capture the Commander in Chief Trophy for the third time in four seasons. The tight end unit also helped Army finish fourth in the country in rushing offense with 273 ypg.

He came to the Banks of the Hudson after a very successful five-year stint as the head coach at Kansas Wesleyan where the Coyotes were 42-17, including a 37-12 slate against KCAC opponents. His last four teams won 40 games (40-8) during the best four-year run in school history. He departed holding the fourth-highest win total in program history as well.

The culmination of that was in 2018 when Wesleyan won its first conference championship since 2002 after going 10-0 and advancing to the semifinals of the NAIA National Championship. The Coyotes posted a program-best 13-1 record and shattered virtually every school and numerous KCAC and NAIA records in the process during their historic season.

In 2017, the Coyotes continued their renewed success under Drinkall by posting an 8-3 overall mark and a 7-2 record in the KCAC. He coached a pair of AFCA and Associated Press NAIA All-Americans in 2017 in Trenton Poe-Evans and Garrett Updegraft. Wesleyan's offense ranked No. 6 in the NAIA in sacks allowed, No. 20 in scoring offense, and No. 24 in total offense. Senior Tyler Welch led the NAIA in kickoff return yards, Updegraft ranked third in the NAIA in tackles per game and Poe-Evans led all NAIA tight ends in receiving yards, touchdowns, receptions and receptions per game.

In 2016, the Coyotes went 9-2 overall and 7-2 in conference play, while also recording back-to-back nine-win seasons for the first time in school history. Wesleyan reached the No. 10 spot in the NAIA Top 25 poll during the season, matching the highest-ever ranking for the Coyotes since the NAIA began recording weekly poll rankings in 1999. The team enjoyed a 5-0 record at Bissell Field at the Graves Family Sports Complex, remaining unbeaten in the facility since it opened in 2015.

The Coyotes enjoyed their best season in school history at that time in 2015 after tallying a program record ten wins and earning a berth in the NAIA Football Championship Series for the first time since 2002. Wesleyan ranked fifth in the NAIA in total offense and pass offense per game and was seventh in the country in scoring. Jake Curran, who was the KCAC Player of the Year, ranked third in the NAIA in total offense and fourth in the country in total offense.

During his first season in 2014, the Coyotes went 2-9 overall and 2-7 in the KCAC. Six players were named All-KCAC and senior defensive lineman Daniel Moss was selected as a Capital One Academic All-America by CoSIDA.

Before coming to Kansas Wesleyan, Drinkall served as offensive coordinator at St. Ambrose University in Davenport, Iowa, for his last two seasons of a six-year stint.

While at St. Ambrose, Drinkall directed the Fighting Bees' offense that ranked No. 4 in the NAIA in scoring offense (44.2 points per game), total offense (505.9 yards per game), passing offense (326.3 yards per game) in 2013, while finishing 7-4 overall and 5-1 in the Mid-States Football Association Midwest League. He also helped Saint Ambrose reach the NAIA Football Championship Series three times (2008, 2012 and 2013). Under his leadership, quarterback Eric Williamson was named the two-time MSFA Conference Player of the Year and set several school records in the process. Drinkall was named the MSFA Assistant Coach of the Year in 2011 in a conference that had produced the last three NAIA National Champions.

Drinkall began his career at St. Ambrose in 2008 and steadily moved through the offensive coaching ranks, starting with the wide receivers in 2009 before moving to offensive line in 2010. He was then elevated to offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for the Bees in 2012.

Before St. Ambrose, he spent two seasons at Western Illinois as the tight ends coach under Don Patterson. While there he helped develop the Leathernecks into one of the top rushing offenses in the country at the time.

He coached three seasons at his alma mater, Bettendorf (Iowa) High School, before arriving at Western Illinois, where he coached defensive backs and wide receivers, including former Indianapolis Colts linebacker Pat Angerer.

Drinkall also served as a student-coach at the University of Iowa for three years after suffering a career ending injury as a wide receiver for the Hawkeyes.

Drinkall holds a bachelor of science degree from Western Illinois – Quad Cities in Kinesiology (2005) and a master of science degree in recreation administration (2007) from Western Illinois. KEITH GAITHER

Wide Receivers
2nd Season
Elon, 1997

Gaither returned to West Point in 2020, after spending the 2019 season on the Western Michigan coaching staff as the wide receivers coach. Gaither resumed his role with the receivers in 2020 and will return to coach the position in 2021.

Gaither helped an Army offense that led the team to a 9-3 record and its third Commander in Chief Trophy in the past four seasons.

Gaither's group was a lucrative part of the Army offensive scheme that finished fourth in the nation in rushing offense and sixth in time of possession, holding the ball for an average of 34 minutes per game.

Prior to Western Michigan, Gaither was the pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach at East Carolina (2017-18), where he was responsible for the instruction and teaching of all aspects of the wide receiver position in a multiple pro style offense. In each of his two seasons, the Pirates produced a first-team all-conference wide receiver in Trevon Brown.

During his first stint at Army, Gaither directed the Black Knights' receiving corps in 2015 and 2016. His pass catchers stood fourth nationally in yards-per-reception with a 17.9 average in 2016 during Army's successful 8-5 campaign, which included a 21-17 win over Navy and a 38-31 overtime victory against North Texas in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl.

In his first year at West Point, Gaither coached Edgar Poe and DeAndre Bell to notable performances. Poe produced a trio of 100-yard receiving games and caught six touchdown passes, which was the most by a Black Knight since 2007, while Bell turned in career highs in receptions and yards as a senior.

Prior to Army, Gaither was wide receivers coach at Ball State from 2011 to 2014 and helped guide the Cardinals to back-to-back bowl appearances in 2012 (Beef 'O' Brady's) and 2013 (GoDaddy.com).

While in Muncie, Gaither was responsible for a combined three All-Mid-American Conference first-team selections in 2012 and 2013, along with second-team and third-team All-MAC picks in 2014. One of his top pupils was current Baltimore Ravens wide receiver Willie Snead, who set BSU single-season receiving records in yardage (1,516), catches (106) and touchdowns (15) in 2013.

Gaither also impacted his players off the field as Briggs Orsbon earned Capital One Academic All-America honors in 2011, while Connor Ryan was a Capital One Academic All-District choice a year later. Orsbon completed his career as only the second receiver in Ball State history to record over 200 career catches.

Before coming to Ball State, Gaither had a two-year stint at his alma mater, Elon, in 2009 and 2010. He helped Terrell Hudgins establish 19 NCAA, Southern Conference and Phoenix records and to a runner-up finish in the voting for the 2009 Walter Payton Award, which formally recognizes the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Player-of-the-Year. Additionally, Gaither mentored All-American pass catcher and Baltimore Ravens draft pick Aaron Mellette while at Elon.

Gaither began his coaching career in 1997 as defensive backs coach at Greensboro (N.C.) College before moving to Tusculum (Tenn.) College for the 1998 and 1999 campaigns. Following a five-year run as an assistant at alma mater Thomasville (N.C.) High School, Gaither returned to the college ranks as Winston-Salem State's recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach from 2005 to 2008.

A four-year starter and two-time all-region performer as a member of the Phoenix secondary, Gaither earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Elon in 1997.

SAGA TUITELE

Offensive Line
2nd Season
Portland State, 2002

Saga Tuitele rejoined the Black Knights' coaching staff in 2020 as the offensive line coach. Tuitele was previously on the Army staff for the 2007 and 2008, beginning his coaching career with the Black Knights as an assistant offensive line coach.

In his first season back on the Hudson, Tuitele helped coach an offensive line group that protected the nation's fourth best rushing attack, averaging 275.3 yards per game on the ground. The offensive line also played an integral role in helping Army post a 9-3 record and capture the Commander in Chief Trophy for the third time in four seasons.

Army also ranked sixth in the nation in sacks allowed (9) and time of possession (34:08 minutes per game) thanks in part to the strong blocking from Tuitele's group up front.

Tuitele also mentored lineman Peyton Reeder and J.B. Hunter, who earned spots on the Phil Steele All-Independent First Team for their strong performances in 2020.

Tuitele came from The University of New Mexico, having served as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator. He previously was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo where he led the Mustang offense to the top of the NCAA FCS charts in terms of points and yards.

During the 2019 campaign, his line was a strength of the Lobo squad. The line was the last in the FBS to allow a sack, and tackle Javon Mosely was selected for the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl in Pasadena. A pair of Lobos in Kyle Stapley and Teton Saltes were honorable mention All-Mountain West, and Saltes was a semifinalist for the Wuerffel Trophy.

In 2018, the Lobo offense underwent a change from a true triple option attack, and despite the changes, UNM had a first team Mountain West offensive lineman in Aaron Jenkins. Overall, UNM's offensive line was tasked with pass blocking 365 times, and allowed just 15 sacks in its first year in a passing offense. Tuitele also was able to get a terrific season from Stapley at center, despite not playing the position before. Stapley was 802 of 806 on shotgun snaps with no penalties.

In 2017, despite injuries that decimated the offensive line and three different players starting at quarterback, the Lobos still managed to rush for 2,825 yards and 21 touchdowns. Offensive lineman Aaron Jenkins anchored the front five and earned plenty of preseason accolades for the 2018 season.

In Tuitele's first season with New Mexico, the Lobos led the nation in rushing yards, rushing yards per game and rushing yards per carry, as well as rushes of 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60 and 70 yards. The Lobos also had two 1,000-yard rushers for the first time in school history in Teriyon Gipson and Tyrone Owens.

Gipson led the nation in rushing yards per carry as well. UNM did all of that with an offensive line that saw three new starters. Additionally, the unit allowed just 12 sacks on the season.

Tuitele is a veteran of option offenses, having spent time at both Cal Poly and at Army coaching the offensive line. For those seven seasons at Cal Poly, Tuitele served as the offensive line coach. He was the co-offensive coordinator from 2009-2012, and the co- was removed from his title for the 2013 through 2015 seasons.

Under Tuitele, Cal Poly led the FCS in rushing yardage from 2013-15, including averaging 387.3 yards per game in 2015. The Mustangs finished fourth in rushing in 2010, sixth in 2011 and third in 2012.

Prior to Cal Poly, he served as the offensive line coach at Army under offensive coordinator Tim Walsh, whom he also coached with and played under at Portland State. Tuitele coached the defensive line at Portland State, helping the Vikings lead the Big Sky in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense in 2004.

Tuitele was a two-time All-Big Sky performer at Portland State, earning honorable mention All-America honors as a senior offensive guard after starting his career as a defensive tackle, where he played for two seasons.

Tuitele earned a bachelor's degree in social science from Portland State in 2002. An All-CIF Southern Section and All-State defensive lineman at Pacific High School in San Bernardino in the mid-1990s.

Tuitele and his wife, Rachel, have four children, To'omalatai, Tifaimoana, Saga III and Teuila.

MIKE VITI

Running Backs
5th Season
USMA, 2008

Former fullback Mike Viti, a 2008 West Point graduate, is starting his fifth season as an assistant coach with the Army West Point football program and sixth overall on staff.

2020 was a strong year for Viti's fullbacks, as they contributed to an Army ground attack that finished fourth in the nation in rushing offense, totaling over 275 yards per game on the ground. The ground attack powered the Army offense which helped the team finish with a 9-3 record and capture the Commander in Chief Trophy for the third time in four seasons.

Viti helped mentor fullbacks Jakobi Buchannon and Sandon McCoy to breakout seasons in 2020. Buchannon's 474 rush yards and six TDs earned him a spot on the Phil Steele All-Independent First Team. McCoy filled up the stat sheet in 2020 scoring ten TDs, a total that was best on the team and good for T-22 in the nation.

Viti also coaxed up fullbacks Anthony Adkins and Cade Ballard who posted 302 and 268 yards on the ground in 2020, respectively.

In 2018, two of Army's top-three rushers were fullbacks. Connor Slomka netted the second most yards on the team with 658 on the season, while Sandon McCoy generated the third most with 576. McCoy (10 touchdowns) and Slomka (eight touchdown) also led the team in rushing scores. As a team, the Black Knights finished the season with 3863 rushing yards good for an average of 297.2 yards per game both of which ranked third nationally.

Following the 2020 NFL Draft, Slomka joined teammates Elijah Riley and Cole Christiansen as two members to ink undrafted free agent deal. Slomka was a member of the Jacksonville Jaguars offseason roster before being waived in mid-August.

In 2018, Viti helped Army capture Commander in Chief's Trophy titles for the second-straight year and earn a bowl victory for the third year in a row following a 70-14 win over Houston. The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and finished the year ranked 19th in the nation.

Viti tutored a fullback group that saw three rush for 300 or more yards on the year with Darnell Woolfolk leading the way with career-best 958 yards. He averaged 73.5 yards per game and had a season high 117 yards against service-academy rival Air Force. The fullbacks combined for 24 rushing touchdowns and Woolfolk was the best of the bunch with 14.

Woolfolk concluded his career tied for third in program history with 37 touchdowns and ended his tenure ninth all-time in Academy lore with 2,368 yards. The Endwell, N.Y., native was selected to the 2018 East-West Shrine Game following his impressive senior season as well.

In 2017, with help from Viti, the Black Knights brought home the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history.

Viti mentored four different fullbacks that saw significant time on the field in 2017. Woolfolk ran for 812 yards in 10 games and tied for the team lead in touchdowns with 14. Woolfolk was a workhorse for the Black Knights with touchdowns in 9-of-10 games in 2017. Andy Davidson returned for his third season and ran for 627 yards, including zero negative yardage plays. Calen Holt and Connor Slomka also saw action in the backfield as Holt had 214 yards and a touchdown, while Slomka finished with four touchdowns and 216 yards.

In 2016, he tutored Andy Davidson to over 900 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns. The 12 scores were the most by an Army player since Trent Steelman had 12 in 2011. Davidson finished with five 100-yard rushing games, including 121 yards and two scores in the season-opening win over Temple.

Viti also worked with Woolfolk, who rushed for 600 yards on 109 carries and nine touchdowns. He had 119 yards and two scores against North Texas in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. Woolfolk had a big day at UTEP with three touchdowns with 71 yards.

TUCKER WAUGH

Slot Backs
20th Season
DePauw, 1993

Tucker Waugh is in his 18th season as a member of the Army Football coaching staff. After serving as wide receivers coach in 2014, Waugh returns to coach the slotbacks for the seventh straight season in 2021.

Waugh coached at Army from 2000-04, departed for Stanford and returned to West Point after coaching the wide receivers in California.

Under Waugh's guidance, Army has been among the nation's top rushing teams in each of the last eight years.

The Army offense thrived under Waugh in 2020, as the team finished the year with a 9-3 record paced by the nation's fourth-best rushing attack. Waugh's slotbacks aided in a ground game that averaged 275.3 yards per contest, and controlled the ball for over 34 minutes per game, a total that was good for sixth in the country.

Running back Tyrell Robinson earned All-Independent First Team Honors in 2020 with help from Waugh, as he rushed for 424 total yards in just his first collegiate season.

Paced by a dominant rushing attack, Waugh and Army secured the COmmander in Chief Trophy for the third time in four seasons with convincing victories over service academy rivals Air Force and Navy.

Waugh's leadership and expertise with the triple option has helped spark the recent era of success under Head Coach Jeff Monken. With Waugh's help, Army won back to back CIC trophies in 2017-18 for the first time in program history while simultaneously making - and winning - three straight bowl games.

Under Waugh's guidance, Army has been among the nation's top rushing teams since 2010, holding a top-five ranking on nine different occasions.

Last seaon the Army rushing attack finished the season with 3863 rushing yards good for an average of 297.2 yards per game both of which ranked third nationally.

In 2018, with help from Waugh, the Black Knights earned back-to-back Commander In Chief's Trophy victories for the first time in program history. It was also the first time Army recorded consecutive 10-plus win seasons after breaking an Academy record with 11 wins.

Waugh helped teach slotbacks Kell Walker and Jordan Asberry to an impressive 2018 season. Walker was fifth on the team in rushing with 320 yards on 67 attempts. He posted a career-long 51-yard run against rival Navy on Dec. 8, where he finished with 109 total yards in the game. Asberry became Army's leading receiver during the year. The senior finished with 219 yards on 11 catches with four touchdowns. In the Black Knights' triumph over Houston in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Asberry ran for a season-best 63 yards in five carries to go along with his 22 yards receiving on just two grabs.

In 2017, Waugh and the Black Knights brought home the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history at that time.

The Cadets claimed the NCAA rushing title, averaging 362.3 yards per game and scored 50 rushing touchdowns to finish second in the nation and set a new program record. Army also led the country in total rushing yards with 4,710 on the year.

Waugh's slotback corps, led by Walker, finished with a career high 629 rushing yards and six touchdowns. He averaged 7.3 yards per carry during the 2017 season, which was the best average on the team. Walker recorded two 100-yard rushing games, including a career best 129 and three scores in a 42-19 win at Rice. Walker was also Army's top receiver with 111 yards on the season.

In 2016, Army was ranked second in the nation in rushing offense and was helped by slotbacks Asberry, Walker and Tyler Campbell. Asberry led the group with 421 yards and five touchdowns. Walker came on strong at the end of the year and proved to be pivotal in wins over Navy and North Texas at the Heart of Dallas Bowl. Campbell was steady all season with 326 yards on the ground and two scores.

In 2015, he guided then sophomore John Trainor to an average of 8.7 yards per carry and two rushing touchdowns. Trainor was also Army's top receiver out of the backfield with eight catches for 176 yards and a touchdown. Then junior Joe Walker racked up 203 yards on the ground on 27 carries that season as well.

Waugh tutored a pair of rookies in Asberry and Campbell that made significant contributions throughout the 2015 season. Asberry had 30 carries for 213 yards, while Campbell had 118 yards on 17 rushes, including a 29-yard touchdown run in the Army-Navy Game.

In 2013, Army racked up 3,950 yards rushing and 4,678 yards of total offense. Waugh mentored freshman wide receiver Xavier Moss, who established an Army rookie record with 35 receptions. The total shattered the previous mark of 20 set by Jeremy Trimble in 2004, which was also set under Waugh's guidance. Moss led the team with an Army freshman record of 463 receiving yards.

Waugh has also mentored two-time 1,000-yard rusher Raymond Maples, one of just three players to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark twice in their career, and was part of the 2010 staff that led Army to a victory in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

During 2008, Waugh's first season coaching running backs in Army's triple-option system, he guided fullback Collin Mooney to a record-breaking season of 1,339 yards. Mooney had just 22 rushing yards prior to establishing the Academy single-season record.

Waugh was a member of Bobby Ross' coaching staff and then departed the Academy to work with head coach Walt Harris at Stanford in 2005.

At Stanford, Waugh coached NFL All-Pro Richard Sherman to Freshman All-America honors as a wide receiver with the Cardinal. He had 34 catches for 581 yards during the 2006 season.

In 2008, Waugh was recognized as one of the up-and-coming assistants in the nation. He was chosen to attend the NCAA Expert Coaches Forum in Dallas, Texas. The Forum is designed to improve and reinforce various aspects of securing, managing and excelling in head football coaching positions at the intercollegiate level. In 2009, Rivals.com named Waugh one of its top 10 recruiters among all non-Bowl Championship Series schools.

When Waugh first arrived at Army, he inherited a group of receivers that had caught a total of 14 career passes. Over the next three years, his Black Knight wideouts registered 322 receptions. During that time, he oversaw the development of Aaron Alexander, who graduated in 2005 ranking second on Army's career charts for both receptions and receiving yards. Waugh mentored Alexander to an Academy-record 64 catches in 2003. His 861 receiving yards that season ranked third on the Army ledger at that time.

Prior to arriving at West Point, Waugh coached for five seasons at Illinois State (1995-99). He worked with the Redbirds' outside linebackers in 1995, running backs in 1996 and wide receivers his final three years. He mentored an All-Gateway Conference selection during each of his three seasons as receivers coach, with Marquis Mosely earning recognition in 1997 and Ricky Garrett copping laurels in both 1998 and 1999.

Waugh helped to establish the Redbirds' passing attack as one of the most prolific in the nation. Illinois State advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 1998 and reached the Division I-AA national semifinals in 1999.

A 1993 graduate of DePauw University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in English Composition and Physical Education, Waugh began his coaching career at Otterbein College in 1993 overseeing the Cardinals' quarterbacks. He returned to his alma mater in 1994 as a wide receivers coach. He also completed a coaching fellowship with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Waugh lettered at quarterback while playing at DePauw from 1990 to 1992 and was named the school's "Outstanding Physical Education Major."

Waugh resides at West Point with his wife, Jen, and sons, Jackson and Nicholas.

CODY WORLEY

Quarterbacks
2nd Season
Furman, 2010

Army head coach Jeff Monken named Cody Worley the team's quarterbacks coach prior to the 2020 season.

In his first season with the Black Knights, Worley helped bring stability to a position that saw five different players start a game. The quarterback room was decimated by injuries a season ago, but thanks to the veteran leadership of Worley and his staff, Army's QB room led the squad to a 9-3 record and it's third Commander in Chief Trophy in the past four seasons.

Worley coached a group of signal callers that helped Army finish as the fourth best rushing offense in the country after averaging 273 yards per game in 2020. His group of QBs also helped Army start the season 6-1, which was just the fourth time in program history a team won six of its first seven contests.

Under his guidance, Thyier Tyler became an All-Independent talent and led the Cadets to five wins including two over service academy rivals Air Force and Navy.

Worley came to West Point after a six-year stint at Kennesaw State, where he was the quarterbacks coach.

In 2019, Kennesaw State had the No. 1 FCS rushing offense, having averaged 342.4 yards per game. The Owls quarterbacks additionally averaged 21.4 yards per completion, which was also topped in the nation.

Under Worley's mentorship, Chandler Burks has emerged as one of the top quarterbacks in the nation, earning back-to-back Big South Offensive Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year accolades in 2017 and 2018, the first player in conference history to earn both awards in the same season. He also became the first player in league history to finish with both 1,000 yards rushing and passing during the 2017 campaign.

A runner-up for the 2018 Walter Payton Award, Burks led all Division I (FCS or FBS) rushers with 29 touchdowns on the ground to tie the Big South single-season record. He led the FCS in scoring (174 points) and points responsible for (18.3 per game) while ranked fourth in the Big South for rushing yards (905), total offense (149.8 yards/game).

Worley also mentored the development of reserve QB Daniel David, who stepped in to log 31 completions for 629 yards and five touchdowns while accounting for 388 rushing yards and six touchdowns on the ground. In 2017, David was crucial in securing a road win over Duquesne, helping lead the Owls to a comeback victory after Burks was hurt in the first half.

In the 2016 season, Kennesaw State's quarterback trio of Burks, White and David accounted for 1,100 rushing, 18 rushing TDs, 1,719 yards passing, and 17 passing TDs with just six interceptions.

The Owls also received major production from the B-back position with Jake McKenzie racking up 415 yards on the ground in 2018, finishing his career with 1,932 total yards.

Worley came to Kennesaw State staff after coaching the quarterbacks and B-backs at The Citadel in 2013. He served the previous two years (2011 and 2012) as the Bulldogs' quality control coach.

During the 2013 season, Worley mentored senior quarterback Ben Dupree, who surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark while tying The Citadel's single-season touchdown record of 21 after rushing for 18 scores and passing for three. His 18 rushing touchdowns were a single-season record by a quarterback.

Worley also was instrumental in developing senior B-back Darien Robinson into a 2013 TSN second-team All-America selection. Robinson led the Bulldogs with 183 receiving yards and was second on the team with two touchdown receptions. He rushed for 987 rushing yards and seven touchdowns.

Worley played collegiately at Furman, where as a senior in 2010, he threw for 1,496 yards and accounted for 19 touchdowns. He merited a spot on the Southern Conference's Academic Honor Roll in 2007-08 and received his bachelor's degree in communication studies from Furman in December 2010.

He completed work on a master's certification in health, exercise and sport sciences from The Citadel in July 2012.

SHIEL WOOD

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
2nd Season
Wofford, 2007

Shiel Wood joined the Army staff in 2020 to help Defensive Coordinator Nate Woody on the defensive side of the ball. In his role with the defense, Wood helps coach the safeties while serving as the Co-Defensive Coordinator. Wood transitioned into coaching the defensive backfield after serving as the inside linebackers coach for the 2020 season.

In his first year with the team, Wood helped lead Army to a 9-3 record and finish as the top defense in the country, allowing only 275 total yards per game. Additionally, the linebackers chipped in with the run-stopping unit that finished 18th in the country, allowing only 114.6 yards per game on the ground against a schedule full of run-heavy offenses. The Black Knights also ranked in the country's top 5 in scoring defense (2nd - 14.83 ppg), red-zone defense (2nd - .645 scoring pct.) and passing yards allowed (2nd - 160.8 ypg).

Under Wood's guidance Army boasted one of the best interior linebacking groups in the nation, led by Second-Team All-American Jon Rhattigan and All-Independent First-Teamer, Arik Smith.

Wood, a former assistant coach at Georgia Tech and defensive coordinator at Wofford, most recently was Georgia State's inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator during the 2019 season.

During the 2019 season, Georgia State matched its school-record for victories. With a five-game increase in wins over last season, Georgia State was one the most improved teams in the FBS. Only Navy and Central Michigan improved more.

In 2018, Wood coached Georgia Tech's safeties and assisted with special teams, helping the Yellow Jackets to a bowl berth.

As Wofford's defensive coordinator in 2017, Wood directed a unit that led the Southern Conference in rushing defense (121.7 ypg), while ranking second in the league and No. 26 in the FCS in total defense, allowing just 326.7 yards-per-game. The defensive effort helped lead Wofford to a 10-3 overall record, the outright SoCon championship (7-1 in league play) and an FCS quarterfinal appearance, where the Terriers fell to eventual national champion North Dakota State.

Wood spent a total of eight seasons as an assistant coach at Wofford, coaching the Terriers' wide receivers (2007-10) and safeties (2011-12, 2016-17) and serving as recruiting coordinator (2016-17) in addition to his one season as defensive coordinator. In his first two years on the defensive side of the ball (2011-12), the Terriers ranked 17th and ninth in the nation in total defense, respectively. As the Terriers' wide receivers coach (2007- 10), he coached two student-athletes who went on to play in the National Football League, including Carolina Panthers wideout Brenton Bersin.

In all, Wofford won four SoCon titles and advanced to the FCS playoffs seven times in Wood's eight seasons on the Terriers' staff.

Wood started coaching in 2006 at Woodruff (S.C.) High School, where he helped lead the Wolverines to a 9-3 record, regional championship and state playoff berth.

Wood, from Spartanburg, S.C., played wide receiver at Wofford from 2001-05 and was the leading receiver on the Terriers' 2003 squad that won the SoCon championship and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals.

ARMY SHUTS DOWN MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE IN OPENER

WEST POINT, N.Y. – The Army West Point football team held nothing back today in its 42-0 home opening victory against Middle Tennessee State.

It was the Black Knights' first home opening shutout since blanking Colgate on Sept. 11, 1993, by a 30-0 score.

The defense stood strong in the contest intercepting two passes and forcing a pair of fumbles. Army scored three times thanks to defensive turnovers.

Captain Sandon McCoy led the Black Knights' offense with three rushing touchdowns. Tyrell Robinson made his collegiate debut in today's contest and led both sides with 94 rushing yards.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- The Black Knights pressed the Blue Raiders early on, scoring off a turnover in the first quarter to go ahead 7-0.
- Cedric Cunningham forced a Middle Tennessee State fumble two minutes into the game at the opponent's 44-yard line. Jon Rhattigan recovered the ball to set up the first Army touchdown of the season.
- McCoy punched the ball through on a one-yard run to cap a nine play, 43-yard 4:00 drive.
- After putting up another defensive stop, the Black Knights took over for the next nine minutes.
- McCoy notched his second touchdown of the day at the 14:06 mark of the second quarter thanks to a two-yard conversion.
- The Cadets were poised for a field goal attempt at 7:56, but a roughing the kicker call by the Blue Raiders enabled another Army touchdown by McCoy.
- Army led 21-0 at the half and all of its drives in the first 30 minutes of the game resulted in rushing touchdowns.
- The Black Knights didn't slow down in the second half and scored back-to-back touchdowns in a 4:15 span.
- Christian Anderson scored his first of the year off a 24-yard rush to cap a seven play, 71-yard drive.
- The Cadets' defense caused another turnover which resulted in an Army touchdown at 6:33 in the third quarter.
- Rhattigan intercepted a pass for a 43-yard pick six to help Army to a 35-0 advantage.
- The Black Knights continued to control the pace of the game well into the fourth quarter thanks to a 99-yard march up the field in a 12:26 minute span.
- Anthony Adkins charged up the Army sideline, shedding would be tacklers for a 22-yard touchdown carry to increase Army's lead to 42-0.

However, Army answered with 49 unanswered points of their own, as they took full control of the game and the clock, possessing the ball for 35 minutes and 10 seconds of the game.

Robinson got the Black Knights on the board first with a 53-yard reception, his first-career touchdown. McCoy followed with back-to-back touchdowns, followed by a fellow b-back reaching the end zone as Cade Barnard rumbled home on a three-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, making it 28-3, Army.

NO. 25 ARMY DROPS ROAD CONTEST AT TULANE, 38-12

NEW ORLEANS – No. 25 Army football fell, 38-12, to the Tulane Green Wave on Saturday afternoon at Yulman Stadium.

The Green Wave (5-4) jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, as the Black Knights (6-2) looked to gather some rhythm with quarterback Christian Anderson making his first start since vs. Abilene Christian on October 3.

The Black Knights got things going with their first drive of the second quarter. They capped off a 10-play, 77-yard drive with a 10-yard touchdown reception for Tyrell Robinson, his second receiving touchdown of the season. The extra point attempt by Landon Salyers was blocked, however, and it was a 14-6 ballgame.

With 4:12 left in the first half, the Black Knights scored their second touchdown of the game on a 19-yard rush by Anderson. The two-point conversion attempt failed and the Black Knights trailed by two entering halftime, 14-12.

The Green Wave got the ball to start the second half and finished off a nine-play, 75-yard drive with a 21-yard touchdown pass, giving Tulane a 21-12 lead.

A 26-yard field goal by Tulane's Merek Glover with 5:38 left in the third quarter but the Black Knights down by 12, 24-12.

The Black Knight offense worked to get things going, eating up 8 minutes and 12 seconds of clock from the third quarter into the fourth, as Tyhier Tyler and Anderson both took snaps from under center. However, the 17-play, 62-yard drive stalled out on the Tulane 10 yard line as they were unable to find the end zone.

The defense held strong, forcing a punt on Tulane's first possession of the fourth quarter, giving the ball back to the offense with 6:55 left in the half.

On fourth and 11 on Army's 19 yard line with 5:22 left in the game, the Black Knights attempted a fake punt, but the Green Wave sniffed it out, with Arik Smith getting tackled for a loss of two yards.

The Green Wave got the ball at Army's 17 yard line and punched it in on a 14-yard rush by Jha'Quan Jackson, making it 31-12 Tulane with 4:26 left in the half.

The Black Knights tried another trick play on a kickoff, as Tyrell Robinson attempted a backwards pass after receiving the kickoff, that was collected by Tulane's Jaetavian Toles who took it to the house, putting the Black Knights down 38-12.

FOOTBALL WINS OVER GEORGIA SOUTHERN IN COMEBACK FASHION, 28-27

WEST POINT, N.Y. – Army West Point completed an incredible come-from-behind victory to defeat visiting Georgia Southern, 28-27 to remain unbeaten at home on Saturday afternoon at Michie Stadium.

The Black Knights went down 14-0 early in the first quarter as Georgia Southern took advantage of some early Army miscues.

However, the Black Knights battled back, capping off a 15-play, 75-yard, eight-minute drive with a one yard touchdown rush by Sandon McCoy. The extra point by Quinn Maretzki made it a 14-7 contest.

The back-and-forth battle ensued, as Georgia Southern pulled out to a 21-7 lead on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Shai Werts to Cam Brown with 9:24 left in the half.

Three fumbles lost in the first half played a big part in the 21-7 deficit at the half for the Black Knights as they outgained the Eagles 147 total yards to 137 yards in the half, including 122 rushing yards to Georgia Southern's 96.

The Black Knights came back out of the half on a mission and scored back-to-back touchdowns to eclipse the 14-point deficit.

First, Braheam Murphy had a 12-yard rushing touchdown to cap off an 11-play, 52-yard drive to pull within seven, 21-14.

Then, Fabrice Voyne blocked a Georgia Southern punt, which was recovered and returned by Kemonte Yow 15 yards to the Georgia Southern two-yard line. All it took was McCoy one play to rush two yards for his second score of the day, and the extra point by Maretzki made it a 21-21 game.

The back-and-forth ballgame continued, as Georgia Southern a 39-yard touchdown pass from Werts to Logan Wright put them up, 27-21. The extra point attempt by Alex Raynor was blocked by Army's Andre Carter, the second blocked kick of the day.

The Black Knights went on an 18 play, 71-yard drive that ate up 10 minutes and 50 seconds and scored on a two-yard rush by Jakobi Buchanan, tying the game up 27-27. Kicker Maretzki connected on the key extra point to give Army a 28-27 lead with 8:16 left in the game.

The defense then came up big with huge stops down the stretch. On the ensuing drive, the defense was stout on a fourth and two attempt from the Army 45, with Jon Rhattigan and Jahvari Bourdeau halting Logan Wright's rush attempt a yard shy of the first down and the Eagles turned the ball over on downs.

Then with 2:20 left in the game, the Eagles got the ball back and on the second play of the drive, Carter made an outstanding diving interception on a pass attempt by Georgia Southern backup quarterback Justin Tomlin to seemingly seal the game for the Black Knights.

Georgia Southern got the ball back one more time, however, with 39 seconds left and got down to the Army 30 yard line before Nolan Cockrill and Arik Smith combined for a sack and then time ran out on the next play to finish off the 28-27 come-from-behind victory for the Black Knights.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Army is now 7-2 on season and 6-0 at home.
- The Black Knights are now 22-2 at Michie Stadium dating back to the start of the 2017 season. The Cadets currently own an eight-game win-streak on their home turf.

FOOTBALL TOPS NAVY 15-0 IN HISTORIC MICHIE STADIUM WIN

WEST POINT, N.Y. – For the first time since 1969, the Army football team shut out Navy, 15-0, in a historic game on Michie Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

For the first time since 1943, the Army-Navy Game presented by USAA was played at Michie Stadium due to the COVID-19 pandemic and restrictions placed on gatherings in its originally-planned location, Philadelphia.

In front of approximately 12,722 fans, 8,800 of them the Corps of Cadets and the Brigade of Midshipmen, Army shut out the Midshipmen for the first time since a 27-0 victory on Nov. 29, 1969.

In the shutout, the defense held Navy to just 117 yards of total offense on 42 plays. They rushed for just 108 yards on 35 attempts and passed for nine yards on 1-for-7 passing. Senior captain Amadeo West led the way with a career-high nine tackles, a number also matched by fellow linebacker, junior Arik Smith.

The Army offense won the time-of-possession battle, 35:16 to 24:22 and collected 162 total yards on 54 plays, with 134 rushing yards and 28 passing. Quarterback Tyhier Tyler scored his second-career touchdown and rushed for 96 yards on 26 carries.

A foggy afternoon at Michie Stadium, the Black Knights got on the board first, as freshman kicker Quinn Maretzki nailed a 37-yard field goal attempt with 12:41 left in the second quarter to get on the board first.

With neither team generating much offense in the first half, Maretzki missed a 38-yard field goal with 1:41 left in the half after a botched snap, but the Black Knights took their 3-0 lead into the half.

At the half the Black Knights held the Mids to just 52 rushing yards on 18 carries and 0 passing yards. The Black Knights nearly identical, 52 rushing yards on 23 carries and 28 passing yards.

Navy's first drive of the third quarter really turned the tide for the Black Knights, as a huge defensive goal line stand saw the Mids turn the ball over on downs from the Army one-yard line. Cedric Cunningham made a touchdown-saving play, as he stopped a 52-yard Xavier Arline rush that gave the Mids first and 10 from the Army two-yard line. From there West and Nick Stokes stopped Nelson Smith short with a one-yard gain to the Army one-yard line. Next play Arik Smith stopped Nelson for a loss of one. After a timeout, Jon Rhattigan made a huge stop on Arline just a yard shy, setting up fourth and goal from the one-yard line. West and Marquel Broughton stopped Smith for no gain and the ball was turned over on downs.

Then on the first drive of the fourth quarter, Tyler delivered the first touchdown of the day for either side as a four-yard rush plus Maretzki's extra point made it 10-0, Black Knights.

The defense came up big once again, as Daryan McDonald tackled Navy's Mark Walker for a loss of 14 yards on a second-and-10 play, giving the Black Knights a safety to make it 12-0.

The fourth quarter continued to be all Black Knights, as Maretzki added his second field goal of the day, this one a 40-yard strike to push the lead to 15-0 with 2:20 left.

That 15-0 lead would hold true and the Black Knights snapped the one-game losing streak to their rival and have won four-of-the-last-five matchups between the two academies.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- This marked the first since 1943 that the Army-Navy Game, pre- sented by USAA, was played at Michie Stadium. The only other two years the game had been played at West Point were 1890 (first all- time meeting) and 1892 (third meeting). Both of those games were played on The Plain. This was Army's first win at home.
- President Donald Trump was in attendance for the Army-Navy game for the third consecutive year. This was the fourth time that Trump attended the game as he was also at the 2016 contest.

FOOTBALL CLAIMS CIC TROPHY WITH 10-7 VICTORY OVER AIR FORCE

WEST POINT, N.Y. – The Army Black Knights defeated Academy rival Air Force, 10-7 on Saturday afternoon at Michie Stadium to capture its third Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in the last four seasons.

The Black Knights (9-2) put together a 16-play, 80-yard drive that ate up 7 minutes and 11 seconds in the fourth quarter that proved to be the difference in the 10-7 victory.

The drive included a conversion on a fourth and four where Christian Anderson executed a perfect boot to rush for seven yards and the first down to continue the drive.

The Black Knights once again faced fourth down with a fourth and goal, do-or-die moment in the game and Jakobi Buchanan muscled his way in for the one-yard score. A Quinn Maretzki extra point put the Black Knights up, 10-7.

The Black Knights got on the board first, as Quinn Maretzki converted on a 24-yard field goal attempt with 11:23 left in the second quarter, going up 3-0.

Air Force (3-3) took the lead 7-3 with 15 seconds left in the third quarter as they finished off a 10 play, 87-yard drive for their one and only touchdown of the day. Quarterback Haaziq Daniels connected with Kyle Patterson for the 10-yard touchdown reception.

Down 7-3 heading into the fourth quarter, the Black Knights displayed their toughness and never-say-die attitude. FOOTBALL FALLS TO WEST VIRGINIA IN 62ND AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL, 24-21

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – The Army Black Knights fell 24-21 to West Virginia in the 62nd AutoZone Liberty Bowl on Thursday evening in Memphis, Tenn.

The Black Knights (9-3) went down 3-0 in the first quarter, but rebounded and led 14-10 at the half and 21-16 in the third quarter, but were shutout in the fourth quarter as the Mountaineers scored eight to push them over the top.

The defense set the tone early, forcing two turnovers in the first half, including an interception of West Virginia quarterback Seth Doege by senior cornerback Javhari Bourdeau on West Virginia's second drive of the game.

The Mountaineers (6-4) got on the board first, however, as Tyler Sumpter drilled a 31-yard field goal with 1:47 left in the first quarter after he missed a 37-yard field goal attempt on the first drive of the game.

Quartberback Tyhier Tyler answered back with a drive of 74 yards on 14 plays that ate up 7:12 as he capped things off with a one-yard rush for the first touchdown of the day. An extra point by Quinn Maretzki followed and the Black Knights took a 10-7 lead with 9:31 left in the first half.

West Virginia answered back however, with a sustained drive of their own, going 77 yards on 12 plays as quarterback Jarret Doege connected with T.J. Simmons on a five-yard touchdown pass to take the lead back, 10-7.

Army's defense came up with a huge play, the second turnover of the first half as Malkelm Morrison sacked Mountaineer quarterback Doege and caused a fumble, which was recovered by Ryan Duran at West Virginia's seven-yard line.

The Black Knights cashed in on that Mountaineer turnover, taking two plays and Tyler rushed for six yards for his second touchdown of the day. The extra point by Maretzki put the Black Knights up, 14-10 and that score carried into the half.

The Black Knights extended their lead to 21-10 after an eight minute drive to open up the third quarter, as Tyhier Tyler tied the Liberty Bowl record with his third touchdown of the day, this one a two-yard rush.

The Mountaineers were not going to go down easy however, and eventually scored 14 unanswered points down the stretch that proved to be the difference in the game. A three-yard touchdown pass from backup quarterback Austin Kendall to Mike O'Laughlin with 3:23 left in the third pulled the Mountaineers within five after the missed two-point conversion.

A second touchdown came with 5:10 left in the fourth quarter, as Kendall hit receiver T.J. Simmons on a 20-yard route for their third touchdown of the day. Reese Smith rushed for two on the conversion to make it a 24-21 game.

The Black Knights had a chance to tie the ballgame up, as they drove the field and with 1:50 left in the game had kicker Maretzki lined up for a 39-yard field goal attempt. However, he missed the kick wide left.

The Army defense got the ball back one more time, and with 1:28 left the Black Knights started with the ball on their own 31 yard line, however, on a last-chance fourth-and-seven, quarterback Christian Anderson on intercepted on a desperation heave, ending the Black Knight's chances.

HISTORY

FOOTBALL

THE 1944 ARMY TEAM WENT 9-0 CLAIMING THE FIRST OF ARMY'S THREE STRAIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS.

ARMY 59, NOTRE DAME 0

The numbers bound off the page with the explosiveness of a "Doc" Blanchard burst up the middle. Fifty-six points per game ... five-hundred-four points scored ... thirty-five points allowed ... four shutouts ... nine wins without a loss ... six first team All-America selections.

Never before had a college football team authored such astonishing credentials. No squad has been able to duplicate that dominance since. Many college football historians contend the 1944 Army squad ranks as the finest college club ever assembled. Critics are hard-pressed to build a substantive argument against those bold assertions.

It was the prelude to a dynasty, a decade of success never experienced along the banks of the Hudson. And it began with the hiring of Earl "Red" Blaik as Army head coach following the 1940 season.

Blaik enjoyed immediate success at West Point, leading the Cadets to three consecutive winning records during his first three years at the Army helm. With World War II raging, colleges all over the country suspended the eligibility rule for freshmen. West Point was no exception, and Blaik's teams benefitted greatly. The crafty mentor was able to secure appointments for some of the nation's top young players.

The most important addition to the 1943 club was a standout halfback named Glenn Davis. Though only a plebe, Davis starred for the Cadets that year. Another one of Blaik's prized recruits arrived at West Point the following year in the form of Blanchard. Together "Mr. Inside" (Blanchard) and "Mr. Outside" (Davis), as they were labeled, would form one of college football's greatest running duos.

Still the hard-running backfield tandem was but a single component within Army's vast arsenal. In fact, Army's depth was so great that Blaik fielded two squads. The "Lombardo Team," quarterbacked by Tom Lombardo, consisted primarily of plebes, including Blanchard and Davis. The "Kenna Team," led by senior signal caller Doug Kenna, started every game before yielding to Lombardo's unit at the start of the second quarter.

Once asked to select the best game he saw these teams play, Blaik responded, "That's easy. It was a Wednesday afternoon in October when they scrimmaged each other. Each scored two touchdowns, but the intensity and execution were the best I ever have seen on any gridiron, any place."

As a whole, the unit was awesome, easily becoming the first unbeaten and untied team at West Point since 1916. In order, the Cadets pounded North Carolina (46-0), Brown (59-7), Pittsburgh (69-7), Coast Guard (76-0), Duke (27-7) and Villanova (83-0). The Cadets set their sights on mighty Notre Dame next. It had been 13 years since Army had defeated the Irish, but that streak ended at Yankee Stadium as the Cadets registered a surprising 59-0 rout. Fears of a letdown the following week versus Pennsylvania were quickly quelled when Army blitzed the Quakers 62-7.

That verdict set the stage for a climactic showdown with arch-rival Navy. The matchup, pitting the top-ranked Cadets against the second-ranked Midshipmen, would decide the national championship. A crowd of better than 70,000 packed Baltimore's Municipal Stadium to witness Army roll to a 23-7 victory.

That night Blaik received a telegram: "The greatest of all Army teams—STOP—We have stopped the war to celebrate your magnificent success. MacArthur."

Still one of the most inspirational tributes came from Blaik, himself.

"Seldom in a lifetime's experience is one permitted the complete satisfaction of being part of a perfect performance. To the coaches, the 23-7 is enough. To the squad members, by hard work and sacrifice, you superbly combined ability, ambition, and the desire to win, thereby leaving a rich heritage for future Academy squads. From her sons West Point expects the best—you were the best. In truth, you were a storybook team."

- HEAD COACH EARL "RED" BLAIK

As the Army football team prepared for the 1945 season, victory had been declared in the Pacific and Gen. Douglas MacArthur called for a "better world" to emerge from the ashes of World War II.

Soldiers were returning from Europe, and the United States was celebrating the end of almost four years of global conflict. West Point's 1945 grid squad, meanwhile, faced the daunting task of replicating the accomplishments of Army's 1944 team, which included the Cadets' first perfect season in nearly 30 years, a national championship and collegiate records for scoring and scoring margin that still stand today.

Fortunately, Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker returned to see if they could create a football dynasty. The team dubbed "Blaik's Black Knights" by New York Sun sportswriter Will Wedge would ultimately measure up to the task.

During an easy 32-0 season-opening victory over Personnel Distribution Command of the Army Air Force stationed at Louisville, Ky., a new star emerged in the Black Knights' constellation. Thomas "Shorty" McWilliams, a plebe who had been a standout at Mississippi State in 1944, guided Army's Wing-T offense to a lopsided win.

The Cadets followed with lopsided verdicts over Wake Forest (54-0), Michigan (28-7), Melville, R.I., USN (55-13), Duke (48-13) and Villanova (54-0). The Cadets expected a stern battle against Notre Dame the next week at Yankee Stadium. More than 75,000 fans witnessed an awesome Army display as the Cadets proved their convincing win over the Irish one year earlier was no fluke, cruising to a 48-0 victory.

A week later, Blanchard and Davis combined for five touchdowns as Army crushed longtime nemesis Pennsylvania 61-0, handing the Quakers their worst loss since 1888. Moreover, that game has been called "Army's peak game of all time." According to noted sportswriter Tim Cohane, "The Black Knights were invincible on the attack, overpowering on the defense. Their blocking and tackling were murderous; their team speed blinding."

THE 1945 TEAM RECORDED FIVE OF ITS NINE VICTORIES BY SHUTOUT.

The Cadets would need every bit of that talent two weeks later against undefeated Navy in Philadelphia. As was the case in 1944, the game would decide the national championship.

Army raced out to a 20-0 first-quarter lead and the Midshipmen could never recover, falling 32-13 as Blanchard finished with three touchdowns and Davis with two.

Honors came pouring in for the team and its players. Army was the unanimous national champion, and Blanchard captured the Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player. Davis was runner-up. Blanchard also received the Maxwell Cup and Walter Camp Trophy as college football's outstanding player, and the Sullivan Award as the outstanding amateur athlete in America. Six Army players were tabbed as first team All-America picks.

Evaluating the squad that year, Blaik called it the greatest team he had ever coached. Some have argued that the 1945 Army team was the best in the history of college football. One look at the team's accomplishments makes it hard to debate that assessment.

Blaik acclaimed "Coach of the Year"
National Champions

Only eight starters from Army's 1945 national championship team returned to the West Point fold the following year as the Cadets attempted to capture a third consecutive national championship. Fortunately for head coach Earl "Red" Blaik, the returning players included standouts Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker.

The Cadets kicked off their 1946 campaign against Villanova, racing to an easy 35-0 victory, but the win was tainted when Blanchard suffered a serious knee injury. Diagnosed as a torn anterior cruciate ligament and a torn membrane, Blanchard's ailment would have sidelined lesser players for the entire year, yet Blanchard would return the following month.

Defeats of Oklahoma (21-7) and Cornell (46-21) followed, setting the stage for a rematch against No. 4 Michigan in the Wolverines' new stadium in Ann Arbor, Mich. Playing for the first time since his knee injury, Blanchard proved little threat to the Wolverines until scoring the game-winning touchdown, sparking second-ranked Army to a 20-13 win.

Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

Blanchard began to regain his form against Columbia the next week, scoring four times in the Cadets' 48-14 whipping of the Lions. Consecutive 19-0 shutouts of Duke and West Virginia preceded another showdown with No. 1 Notre Dame.

The nation's two top-ranked teams went head-to-head at Yankee Stadium in a classic defensive struggle that ended in a 0-0 tie. Notre Dame stiffened six times with Army inside the Irish 30, while the Cadets allowed Notre Dame past midfield just three times all day. The scoreless deadlock snapped Army's winning streak at 25 and each team maintained its national ranking.

Army shrugged off early offensive lethargy to deal Pennsylvania a 34-7 setback heading into the annual season-ending battle with arch-rival Navy. The season had taken a dreadful toll on the Black Knights, who nonetheless were unbeaten entering the fray.

A crowd of 100,000 jammed Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium for one of the most stunning contests in the history of the series. Army jumped out to a 21-6 halftime bulge, but Navy came roaring back, closing to within 21-18. As time wound down, Navy drove to the Army 3-yard line, but two late plunges by fullback Lynn Chewning and another by Pete Williams, who was corralled by Barney Poole, proved fruitless.

As the ball sat just four yards from paydirt and a Navy upset, the clock ran out on another frenzied service academy classic, providing Army with a 21-18 win and its third straight undefeated season.

Notre Dame was named national champion in five polls that year with Army claiming top honors in two others. The teams were listed as co-champions in three additional rankings.

Still, Army had much to be proud about. Davis accepted the Heisman Trophy as the outstanding football player in the nation. Tucker received the Sullivan Award as the country's outstanding amateur athlete. And Blaik was named "Coach of the Year" by the Football Coaches Association of America. In all, four Cadets garnered first team All-America honors.

Looking back on his players and the teams of Army's glory years, Blaik said, "'Doc and Glenn did more for West Point football than any other player or coach in history."

That fact still holds true today.

Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

The John W. Heisman Memorial Trophy Award is presented each year by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the nation's outstanding college football player. First known as the D.A.C. Trophy, the award was renamed in 1936 for John W. Heisman, the first athletic director of the Downtown Athletic Club, a football player at Pennsylvania and Brown and a coach for 36 years, including tours at Auburn, Oberlin, Clemson, Akron, Pennsylvania, Rice, Washington & Jefferson and Georgia Tech. The bronze trophy was sculpted by Frank Eliscu with the help of one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen," Jim Crowley, whose Fordham players posed as models.

Since the inception of the Heisman Trophy in 1935, three Army players have garnered the award. Only four other schools—Notre Dame (7), Southern California (7), Ohio State (7) and Oklahoma (5)—have had more winners. Army's "Mr. Inside," Felix "Doc" Blanchard, and "Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, captured the Heisman in back-to-back years in 1945 and 1946, respectively, leading Army to national championships in both years. Just over a decade later (1958), Pete Dawkins led the Cadets to their most recent Lambert Trophy title and their last undefeated season (8-0-1) on his way to earning the honor.

In 1990, Mike Mayweather became the first Army player to attract serious attention from Heisman voters since Dawkins' selection more than 30 years prior. Mayweather, who graduated from West Point in 1991 as Army's all-time leading rusher and the most prolific runner in service academy history, finished 10th in the Heisman balloting, garnering three first-place votes. An All-America selection who also finished as second runnerup in voting for the inaugural Doak Walker Award, Mayweather rushed for a then school-record 1,338 yards in 1990, concluding with 4,299 career ground yards, another Army standard.

HALL OF FAME HAS STRONG ARMY INFLUENCE

Founded in 1947 by immortal journalist Grantland Rice, legendary Army coach Earl "Red" Blaik and West Point graduate Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame is dedicated to mobilizing the constructive forces of amateur football at all levels for the benefit of society as a whole. In addition to the visionary foresight of Blaik and MacArthur, who helped shape the Foundation in its early days, the College Hall of Fame carries a distinct Army flavor as 27 former players and coaches have been included among the game's elite. In addition, others with West Point ties, like Bill Yeoman '50 and Bob Neyland '16, have been enshrined.

Recognized as the "Father of Cougar Football," Yeoman forged a sparkling 160-108-8 (.597) record during a 25-year stint at the University of Houston, leading the Cougars to 11 bowl games and four Southwest Conference championships. Neyland, named head coach at Tennessee in 1926, spent 27 seasons at the helm of the Volunteers' program. In that time, his squads amassed a 173-32-12 record and captured four national championships. Neyland was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1956. The Foundation inducted its first class into the Hall of Fame in 1951, and each year the gridiron's greatest collegians have been enshrined among the pantheon of players who have shaped the game. Today, the College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Ind. More than 900 players and coaches, who exemplified the Foundation's basic creed of Scholarship, Citizenship and Performance, are honored in a world-class museum.

Former President and Foundation Gold Medal recipient Dwight D. Eisenhower summed up the impact of college football with the following: "In football, in business, in the trades and the professions, the normal urge to excel provides one of the most hopeful assurances that our kind of society will continue to advance and prosper. Morale ... the will to win, the fighting heart ... are the honored hallmarks of the football coach and player. This morale, this will, this heart ... we need not only in athletic teams as individual, but collectively."

Since 1925, when Gus Farwick and Edgar Garbisch competed in the East-West Shrine Game, dozens of Army players have been invited to participate in postseason all-star games. The following list shows those players who appeared in games, and when (year reflective of date game was played).
